Reruns

Football half-time entertainment, consisting of the band and auxiliary groups, combined with a winning season to satisfy Ram fans.

Wet smiles accompanied wet cars as the Juniors turned fun into profit at their car wash.

For Homecoming, the members of the Lettermen Club again erected a bonfire made of scrap wood.

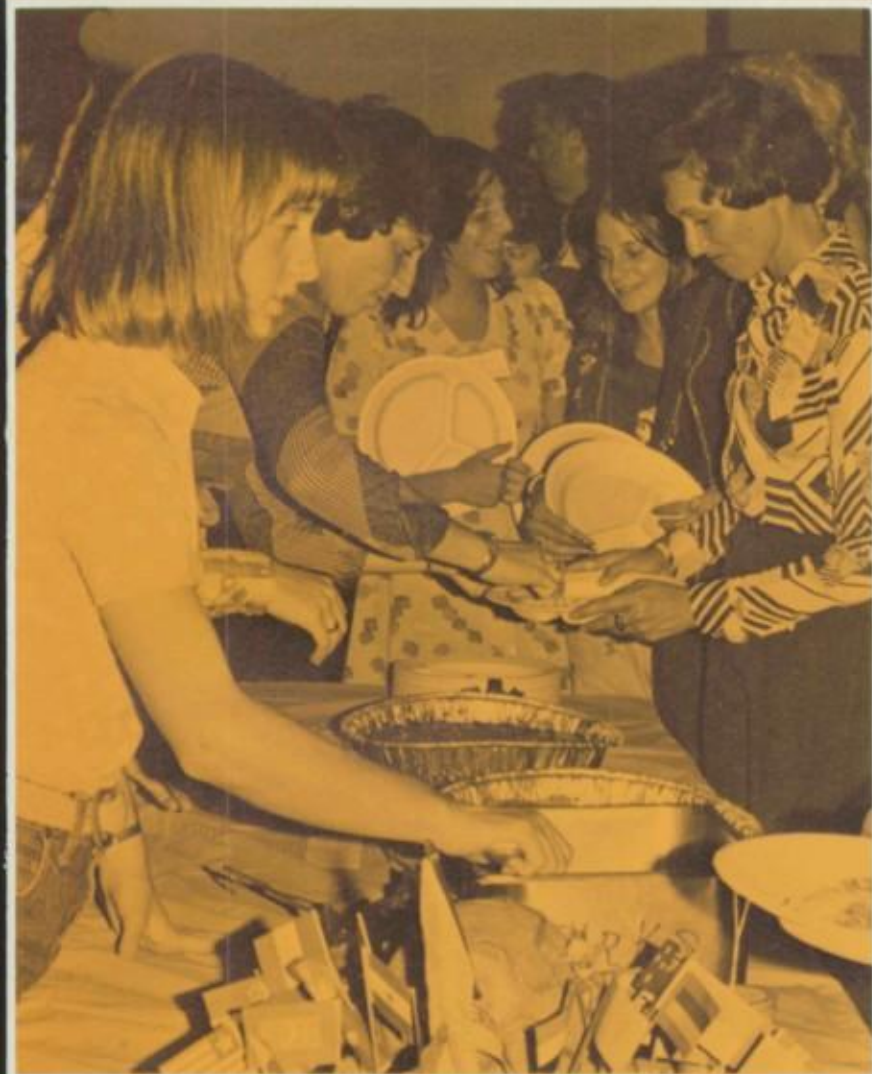

Many times during the year, students were presented with the opportunity to purchase anything from T-shirts to tickets. Of course, the Band members traditionally add candy bars to the market.

The Great Pumpkin and Big Bird brought "Trick-or-Treat" greetings on Halloween.

The students' teacher stereotypes dissolved as the antics of the Scholarship Fund — sponsored Variety Show got underway.

The International Dinner was the American Field Service's first major fund-raising event.

The Drama Department again succeeded with its production of "The Secret Affairs of Mildred Wild." In the final scene, Mildred Wild (Suzanne Rubin) taps to the tune of a Shirley Temple song.

Music For Everyone

From the Stage Band to the Orchestra Ladue offers its students many musical options. The Stage Band, a big innovation to the student body, plays at all school orientated activities. They provided the entertainment at both the Father-Son and the Father-Daughter Banquet. The Stage Band directed by Mr. Tom Poshak added the bit of "jazz" needed to enthues their audiences.

Adding a more quiet type atmosphere is the Orchestra. The Orchestra which has grown tremendously within the past year is directed by Mr. William Brackman. The Orchestra as well as the Stage Band had their own individual performances.

And finally for students who are just interested in studying music, there is the Music Club. Each member has to research and report on a kind of music. Students can find a variety of music for everyone's interest.

Secret Fantasies Lead To Production

The fall production "The Secret Affairs of Mildred Wild" led to a great beginning for the Drama department. Mildred Wild lives in a world of nothing but glamorous movie stars. The play is based on Mildred's confrontation of the two worlds and her triumph through defeat. The play was produced and directed by Donna Taylor, Choreographic Assistant and Consultant Iris Markman, Student Director Tracy Zerman, and Scenic Design and Supervision Paul Reising.

1. Mildred (Suzanne Rubin) fantasizes she is Shirley Temple, while Helen (Margie Schoenfeld) dances behind. 2. Corey Sevett portrays a flamboyant director as he gives Mildred Wild (Suzanne Rubin) a chance to star in a movie with Mr. Barraccini (Pete Bouchard). Rex Bulby (Glen Cornblath) stands by. 3. Miss Manly (Robin Levy) assisted by photographer Rex Bulby (Glen Cornblath) conducts an interview with Roy and Mildred Wild (Pete Bouchard and Suzanne Rubin). 4. Bertha, the landlady (JoAnn Slosberg) begins to seduce Roy Wild. 5. Mildred Wild (Suzanne Rubin) and Roy Wild (Pete Bouchard) argue in a fantasy of Fred Astair and Ginger Rogers. 6. "I won!" screams Mildred Wild (Suzanne Rubin) to her cranky sister-in-law, Helen (Margie Schoenfeld). 7. Mildred Wild (Suzanne Rubin) questions her husband (Pete Bouchard) about a vibrator found on their bed.

Choruses Captivate Audiences

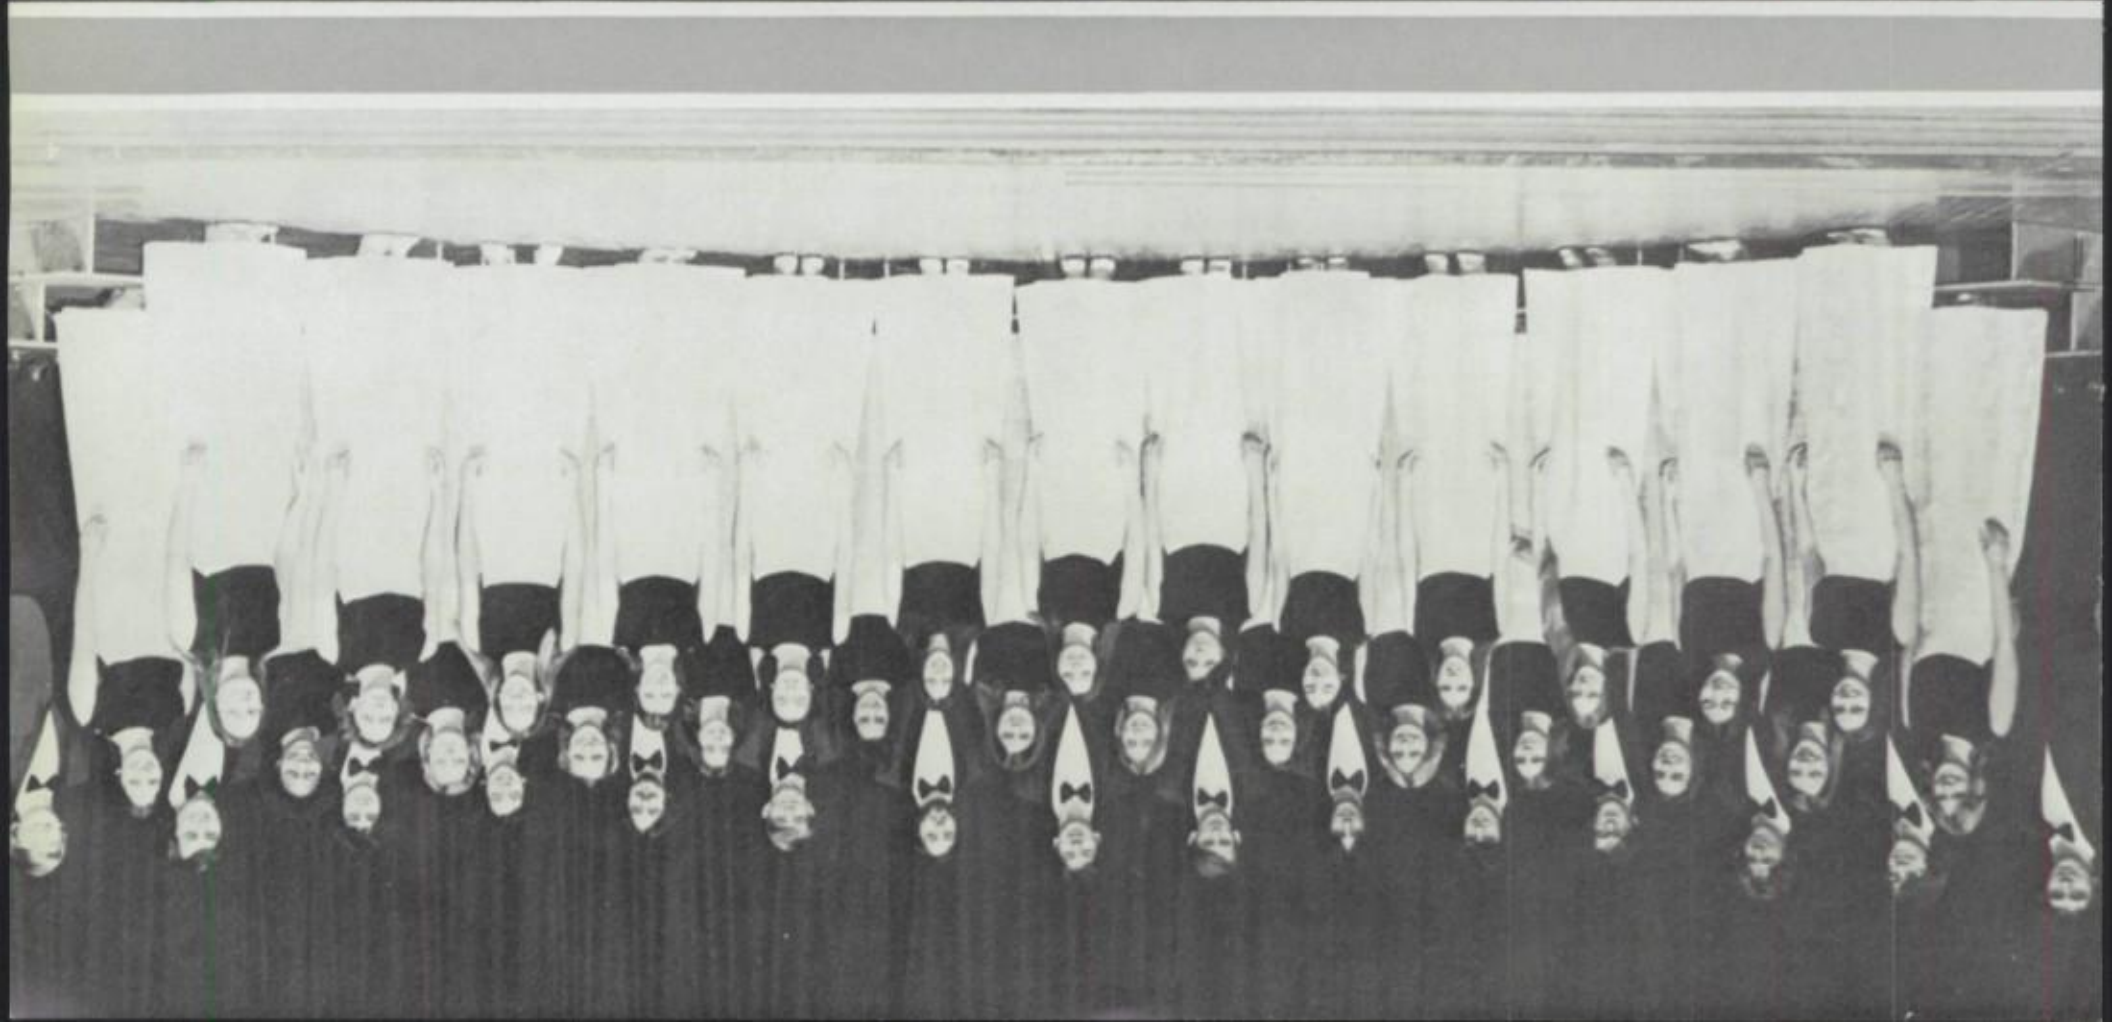

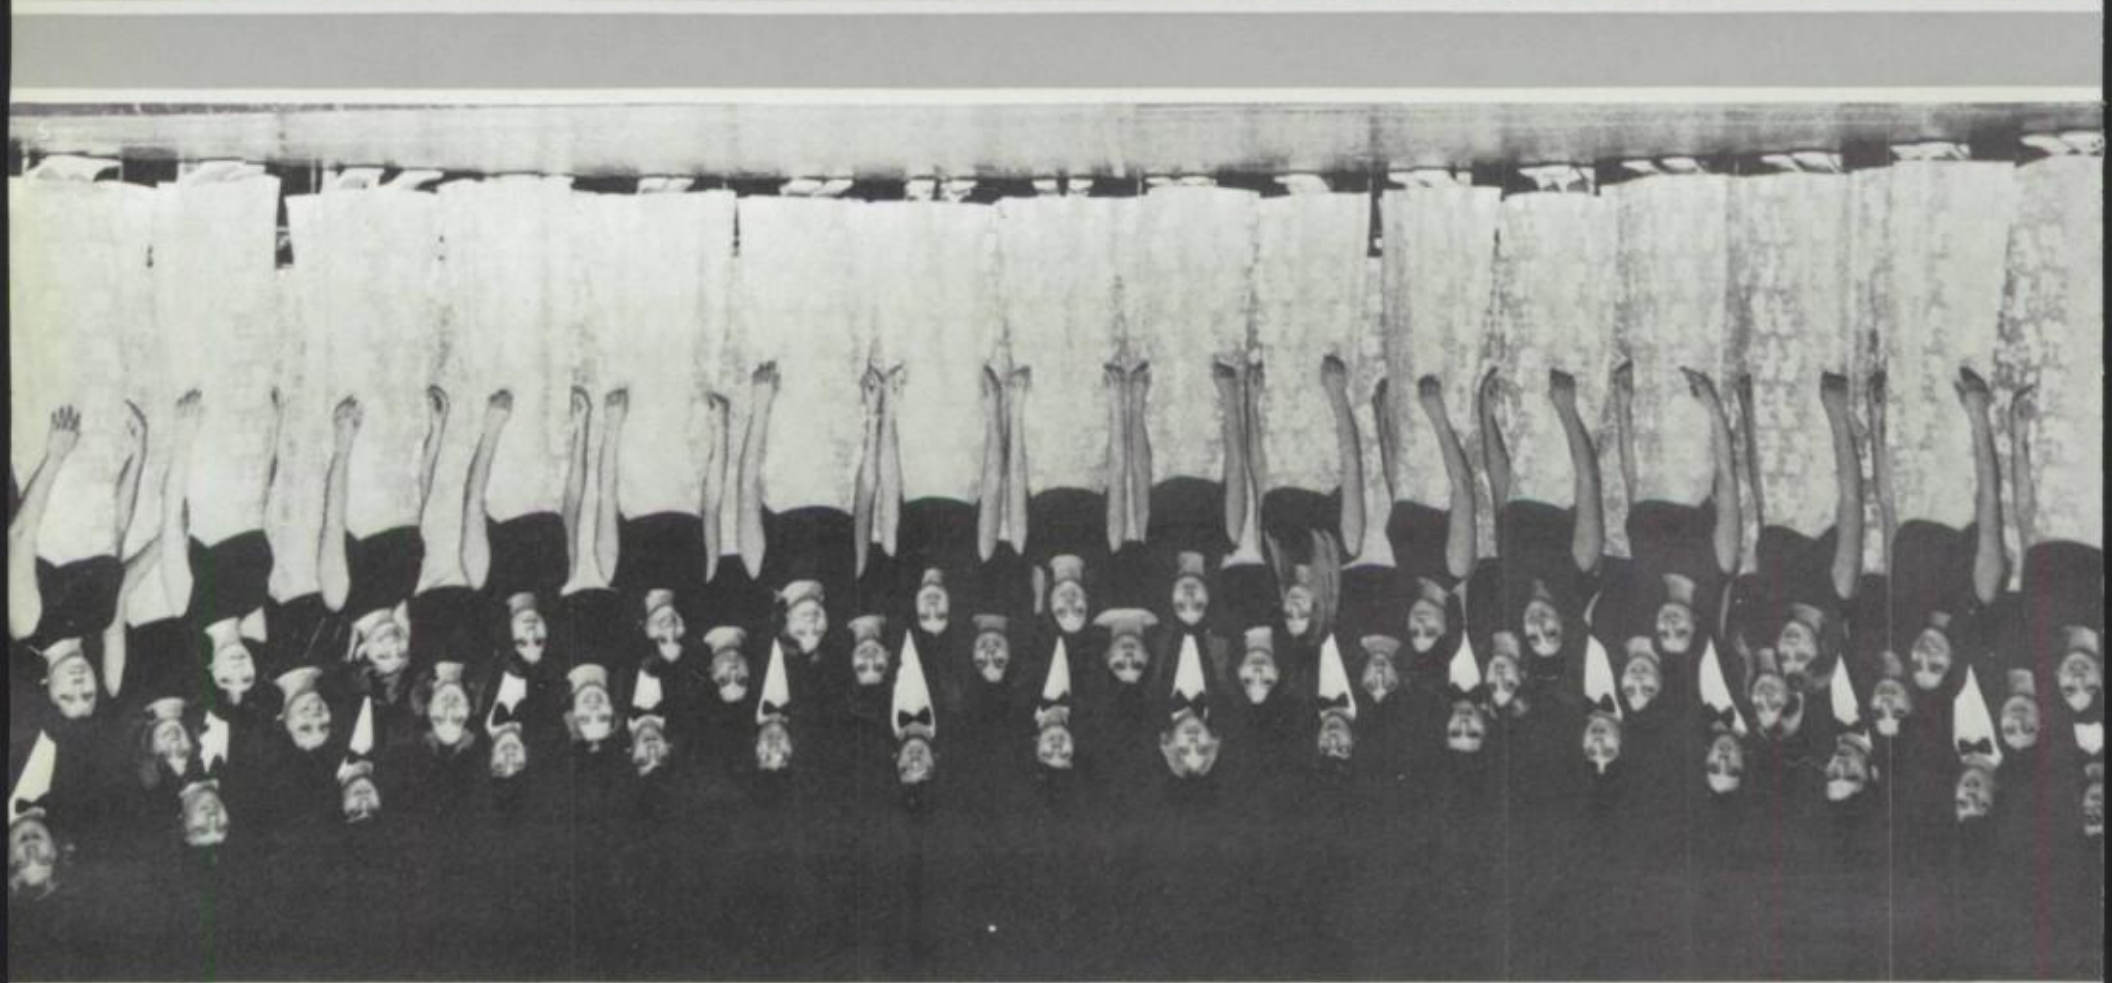

Once again Ladue followed through with traditional excellence in its three choruses: Chorale, Choraliers, and A Capella. A Capella, a training chorus, performed in the winter concert. Choraliers, a more advanced chorus, participated in the winter and spring concerts and also concerts around the area. Chorale represents the top vocal talent of the school. They sang at the annual winter and spring concerts, the spring musical "Hello Dolly," a special Bicentennial concert, and many community programs in the St. Louis area. For another year Mr. Joe Richardson, teacher and director of the three choruses, offered the students opportunities for growth and enrichment, providing countless avenues for individual and group expression.

1. Concentration at its best. 2. Chorale sight reads "How Lovely are the Messengers." 3. "Sing louder!" shouts Mr. Richardson. 4. Chorale — FRONT ROW: Darlene Goldstein, Pat Cho, Tricia Conner, Julie Wheeler, Robin Levy, Maria Mena, Mindy Rosenberg, Alene Hammerman, Christine Zanetos, Elizabeth Burlison, Lucy Holmes, Becky Walker, Debbie Lyons. Ladue Theatre Extends A Warm Hello, Dolly

Once again the dancers and singers returned to the stage as Hello, Dolly finally became a reality. Dolly Gallagher Levi, played by Robin Levy, plays a so-called typical New Yorker from Yonkers who, through meddling in everyone's affairs, swindles herself into marriage with Horace Vandergelder, played by Steve Wollenberger.

The show, almost a complete sell-out all five nights, was produced and directed by Iris Markman and Donna Taylor. The superb choreography was created by Iris Markman, while the talented cast was coached by Donna Taylor. Instrumental and Choral Direction were conducted by William Brackman and Joe Richardson, respectively. The directors and casts extend a very special thank-you to all the faculty and crews who helped to make this years musical a success.

1. Twirling and swirling around the stage the dancers add both color and glamour. 2. "It only takes a moment," Cornelius Hackl (Brad Aul) tells the court. 3. A warm welcome is given to Dolly Levi (Robin Levy) from her escorts at the Harmonica Gardens Restaurant. 4. "Dolly will never go away," sings Dolly Levi (Robin Levy). 5. Ambrose Kemper (Neil Okun) comforts the crying Ermengarde (Lucy Goldenhearsh). 6. Cornelius Hackl (Brad Aul), Irene Molloy (Becky Walker), Barnaby Tucker (Doug Strauss) and Minnie Fay (Ellen Wiederholt) explain to the audience the meaning of elegance. 7. Drew Kravin and Wayne Cornblath take a break during the Waiters Gallop.

1. Dolly Levi (Robin Levy) gloats over her success in snaring Horace Vandergelder (Steve Wollenberger) into marriage. 2. Dancing cast strikes a casual pose as they complete another number. 3. Chorale Men sing "It takes a Women." 4. Craig Olschansky and Corey Sevett welcome Dolly (Robin Levy). 5. "We're going to New York, York," Cornelius Hackl (Brad Aul) tells Barnaby Tucker (Doug Strauss). 6. Horace Vandergelder (Steve Wollenberger) and Ernestina (Sally Heller) order one of the Harmonia Garden's Restaurant specialties. 7. Waiters and cooks sing out to welcome Dolly.

Marching Rams Blow Through A Successful Season

The 1975 Ladue Marching Rams, directed by Mr. Tom Poshak, provided fans with impressive entertainment. Halftime shows included such themes as an introduction to the Marching Rams and the homecoming theme, "Ladue Fight Around the World." Coming through with flying colors, the Marching Rams supplemented the bicentennial theme by using red, white, and blue balloons. For homecoming, the band decorated a float to "Blow Down the Longhorns." The band, with the other auxiliary pep groups, performed not only at football games, but also at "The Ladue Marching Rams In Concert."

Majorettes, Laduettes, And Color Guard March With Creative Entertainment

Adding enthusiasm and spirit to sporting events and assemblies, the Majorettes, Laduettes, and Color Guard worked with the band to create lively entertainment. Spinning with diversity and skill, the Majorettes twirled not only regular batons, but also fire batons, flags, and swords. To raise money for these and other special supplies, the girls held a doughnut sale and a car wash. The forty hard working Laduettes practiced dilligently to perfect their halftime routines. They also performed at the away football game against Webster. Opening each half-time show and pep assembly, the Color Guard marched in with new and synchronized routines. All of the groups expanded their skills to the community by performing for Litzinger School and at the Schriners' Hospital.

Cheerleaders

Promote School Pep

Led by co-captains Cindy Hendrickson and Sheri Koprivica, the 1975-76 Varsity Cheerleading Squad added the spirit needed to inspire both the players and the fans. From driving cars in the Homecoming parade to selling candy sticks to raise money for their new uniforms this year, the cheerleaders spread their spirit throughout school this year.

The number of girls in the 1975-76 Sophomore Cheerleading Squad, reduced to nine members had both advantages and disadvantages. The reduced size increased the individual work load on the members while it attracted more attention to each girl. The cheerleaders work hard as a squad to put together new cheers and spread their enthusiasm.

Big Brothers Sisters, Greet Incoming Sophs

The Big Brothers and Big Sisters succeeded in acquainting the sophomores with the high school. The orientation program, held before school started, introduced the sophomores to the school and to the administration. A barbecue was also held after one of the Ram's victorious games to provide a social and informal initiation to the school. Sponsor Mrs. Jean Gordon worked with officers Laurie Chorlins, Ann Fingerhood, Karen Goldman, and Stacey Wallerstein. Big Brother officers Haw Han, Lester Knight and Steve Miller, and sponsor Mr. Richard Eaton worked with the Big Sisters to assign incoming sophomores to interested juniors and seniors. The sophomores quickly caught on to the pattern of student activity here at school. Displaying superior leadership, the Big Brothers and Sisters introduced the sophomores into the school and set the standards for a successful year.

Nearly seventy people participated in Forensics as either a Debate Team member or as an Individual Events speaker. Captains Bob Kaiser, David Kohm, and Gary M. Wolff with sponsor Mr. Bill Heyde led the Debate Team in many successful tournaments in St. Louis and on overnight excursions to Kansas City, Jefferson City, Springfield and Sikeston. The three top debators placed second in the Greater St. Louis Speech Association. Debate Team members are divided into three sections according to their experience: varsity, junior varsity and novice. Individual Events speakers led by captains Ellen Krout and Lauren Schneider, and sponsor Mrs. Linda Box traveled with the Debate Team. Dramatic and humorous interpretation, poetry and prose reading, duet acting, Reader's Theater, improvisation and public speaking are a few areas included in I. E. Public speaking includes extemporaneous speaking and oratory. Both the Debate and I. E. teams shared many victories.

Saturday Project Combines Goodwill With Good Times

Many new friendships were developed between inner-city children and the high school students through Saturday Project. A camp-like atmosphere was projected to the third through sixth graders of the Banneker School. Entertainment and snacks were provided to the children along with swimming, sports, and various arts and craft sessions. Under the direction of Jane Schoenfeld and Sara Shull, and the supervision of Sponsor Miss Terry Cannon and volunteer teachers, the Project met once a month, financed by the Senior Class.

Close Up Erases Skepticism

Close Up was an opportunity for students and teachers to focus on today's government in action. Students were able to develop a sense of how the complicated government works, from talking with government officials, lobbyists, journalists, and others. The arrangement of the Close Up program offered an alternative learning experience other than a school atmosphere.

Ladue students, in February, joined with students from different schools in the St. Louis metropolitan area, to participate in government processes in Washington D.C. Emphasis was placed on relationships with other people through seminars, discussions, and interviews in work-study programs. In Close Up, skeptical students discovered that people of the government can be influenced in their decisions by active individuals.

Organizing a wide variety of projects to reach a goal of $6000, the Scholarship Fund initiated several large scale projects which involved many students. Starting the year with a dance and the traditional Variety Show, the Scholarship Fund continued to raise money with a light bulb sale, and the carnival "Etc." Various individual clubs manned the booths at "Etc." helping to raise a total of $2218 profit. President Mark Wenneker, Vice President Mary Beth Ponte, Secretary Margy Schoenfeld, Treasurer-Sponsor Mr. Larry Rhoads and Sponsor Mrs. Marie Smith received assistance from the other faculty sponsors in organizing and executing the various projects. About ten students received approximately $500 from the Scholarship Fund Treasury this year.

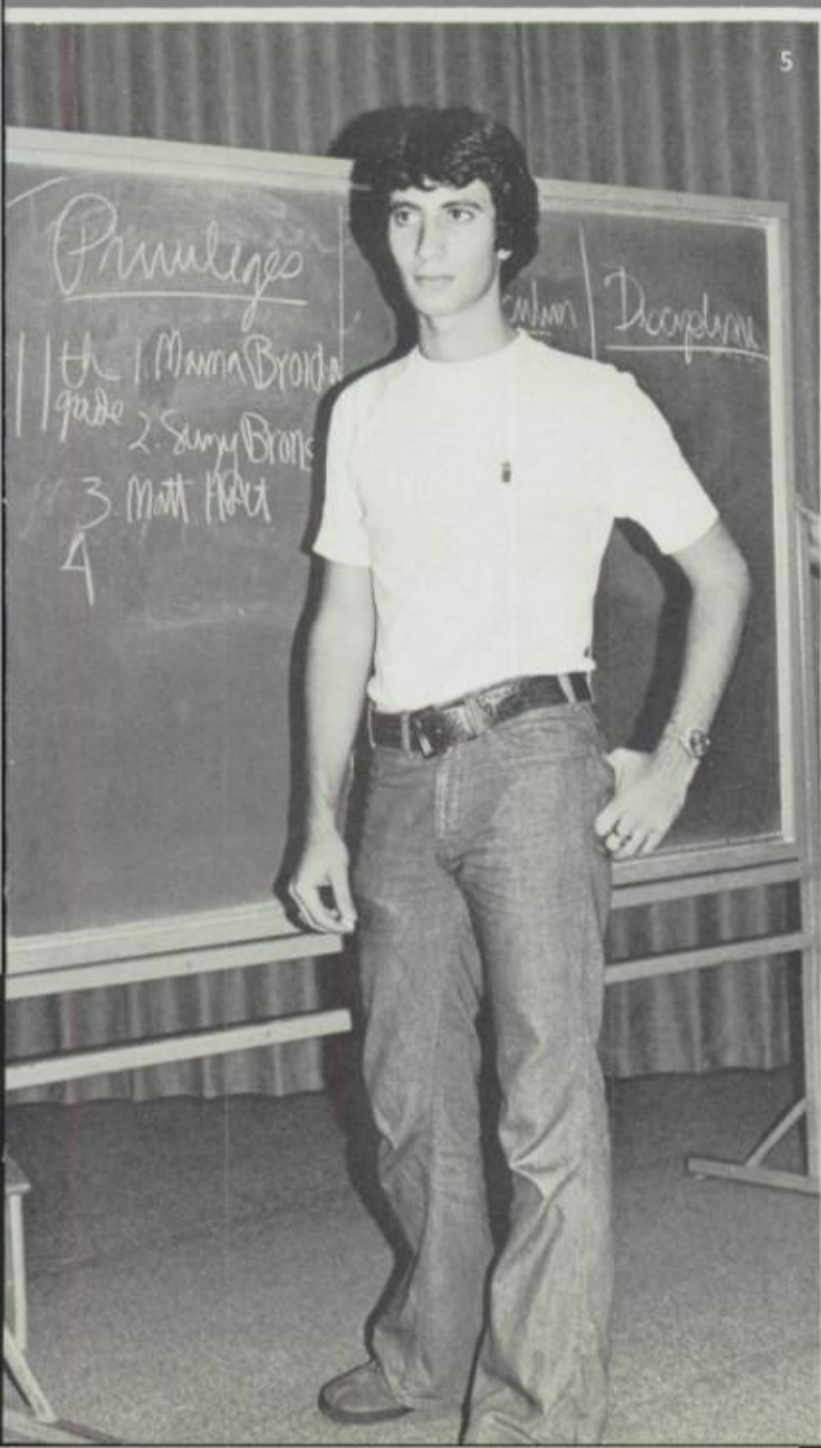

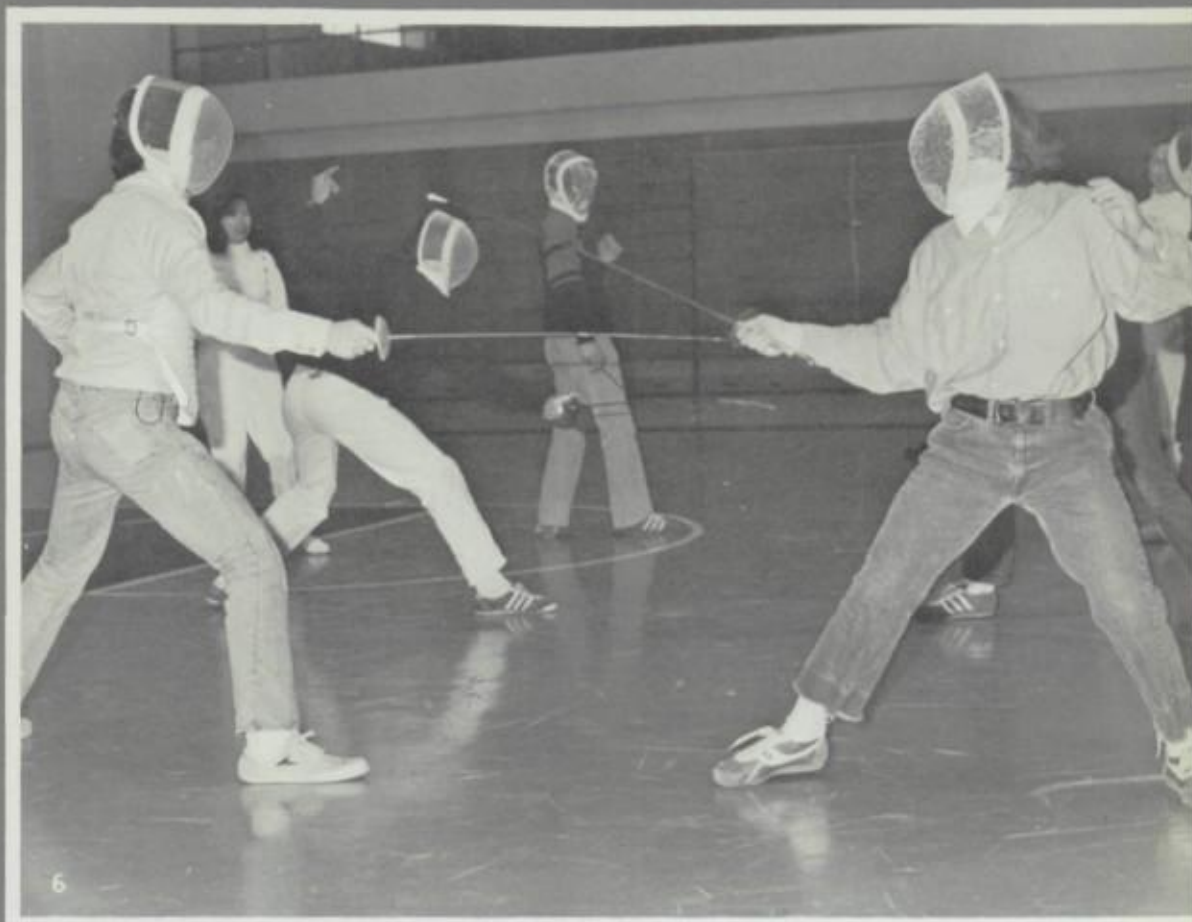

Student Congress

Looks At Learning

This year's Student Congress took a new look at student affairs. Besides instituting changes in the school, much of Student Congress activity stressed learning the process to effect changes. The Discipline, Curriculum, and Privileges committees acted upon several issues including open campus, the "H" grade, and credit/no credit. To involve all the grades, class student advisors worked with President Gary M. Wolff and Secretary Joanne Slosberg. Senior advisors were Elliot Eder and Mark Wenneker; junior advisor was Mary Beth Ponte; and sophomore advisor was Bob Gerchen. The Student Congress held several student exchanges and wrote many bills reflecting student views and attitudes.

Students Exhibit Generosity At Giving Party

There may be shortages across the country, but there was no shortages of generosity and good will at the eighth annual Holiday Giving Party. The Holiday Giving Party is held each year to enable the students and teachers to join together in giving to charity. This is the only school event where everyone is unified to raise money for a worthwhile cause. The Dollar-A-Month Club organized the Giving Party which was sponsored by Mrs. Marie Smith and Mr. Richard Eaton. The week before winter vacation, various clubs collected at the Holiday Giving Center. Five families received $64.60 each, bringing in a total of $332.

'75 Model Senate Legislates Issues With Enthusiasm

The 1975 Model Senate convened under the direction of President Ken Malnik, President Pro Tem Emily Sachar, Secretaries Barbie Kiem and Susie Talcoff and sponsor Mr. Ralph Cordell. Senators wrote bills for the four committees: Armed Services, Foreign Relations, Judiciary, and Labor and Public Welfare. They held an evening meeting to discuss and amend those bills which were to be presented on the floor the following day. The Steering Committee limited the issues for each committee. Many issues were discussed and debated upon as students became acquainted with the law-making process.

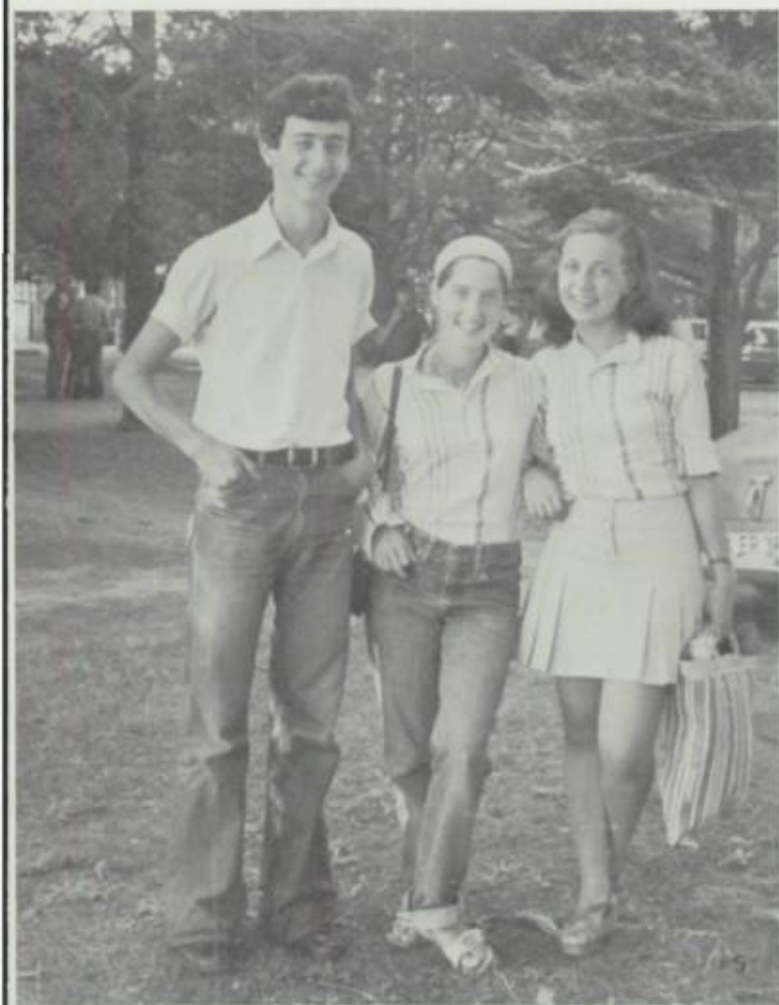

AFS Unifies Foreign Cultures

"Walk together, talk together, all you peoples of the earth. Then and only then shall ye have peace," is the motto of American Field Service students all over the world. At Ladue this year were two students.

Interested in archeology, acting and foreign languages, Alena Brozova enjoyed the year with the Phillips family. Ladue soccer star Pery Carvalho spent the year with the Robert Kelly family. Ladue sent two students abroad. Emily Sa-char went to Istanbul, Turkey, and Kathy Simon to Cheing Mai, Thailand.

The AFS Club here at school worked with the mother's organization to raise money for scholarships for students who come from abroad. The Club, with Co-Presidents Sue Schukar and Beth Mabon, and sponsor Mrs. Suzanne Kirchhoefer, held a dinner, a walk for humanity, and began a tradition to commemorate our foreign students which they hope will continue through the years.

Experimental Living Hits Ladue

The dream to live in the Swiss Alps came true for two Ladue students this past summer. Both Suzy Sachs and Linda Byers lived in Switzerland for six weeks on the Experiment in International Living Program. They participated in activities such as farming, traveling, and mountain climbing. Living with their individual families each one gained a deep insight of the Swiss culture.

1. On top of the tower Linda Byers and a friend enjoy the view below them. 2. Suzy Sachs practices her mountain climbing on an old tree in Fafleralp. 3. Suzy's group stops to mingle with the crowd. 4. Linda and her Swiss sister Sonja spend a day at the lake. 5. Suzy enjoys the mountains in Switzerland along with her American group.

Ladue Summer Trips Go Abroad

Many Ladue students enjoyed their summers traveling abroad. Summer Experience '75 was a big hit with students. They traveled to Germany, France, Italy, and many more places. Along with the educational aspects, everyone shared a close, personal relationship with others on the trip. Through the American Institute of Foreign Study, sponsor Mr. Roy Johnson took a group of students to Asia. This group met with students from many different places, and spent their time touring with them. Both trips proved to be a fun and educational experience.

Foreign Language Clubs Set Keys For Better Communications

The Spanish Club, sponsored by Mrs. Carol Carinci, organized many worthwhile projects. The club collected cans for the Holiday Giving Party and participated in the Homecoming parade. They also had a taco party and a final dinner as a result of their money making projects.

tions was "Cinderella." The club also organized several French dinners.

Another foreign language club, consisting of Russian students, sponsored a booth in the all school carnival, Etc.

Concentrating on exploring German cultures, the German Club viewed the movie "The Hindenburg."

Hebrew Club, FTA Rate As Two Energetic Groups

Taking part in the annual school carnival, the Hebrew Club made themselves known. Added to their calendar this year was a Hanukkah party and Israeli folkdancing at the Giving Party. The Club also collected old yamulkas to send to Russia.

Ranging from a Christmas party at Rankin Jordan to a spring fashion show F.T.A. proved to have a full year. Representing the Future Teachers of America, the students sponsored several speakers on the techniques and problems of teaching.

Rifle, Trap And Skeet Clubs Aim For Perfection

Sponsored by Mr. Roman Kuchner and Mr. Anton Lesjek Ladue's Rifle Club placed second in the White Division of St. Louis High School Riflery. Other schools in their division are CBC and Alton. The purpose of the club was to learn how to handle rifles safely and to compete with other schools. The best shooter in the club was Jay Balk.

The Trap and Skeet Club was a new club introduced to students this year by Sponsor Mr. Len Patton. Mr. Patton aided the students in learning the different techniques in shooting trap and skeet. The club traveled to a range in which they practiced several methods of shooting.

Both clubs benefited the students in improving their shooting abilities and learning gun safety.

Ladue Hockey Team Skates Into Victorious Season

Skating at Olivette Twin Rinks, the Ladue Hockey Club, coached by Mr. Ed Olson and Mr. Dan Dunbar, played 22 games. As players for the South Division of the Mid-State High School Hockey Association, sophomore Stu Birenbaum was one of the best goalies. The team specialized in power plays which gave them the highest percentage of goals scored in their division. High point scorers were Scott Weaver and Chip Seigel. Weaver also coached the junior varsity team which consisted of mostly ninth and tenth graders. David Sobelman, David Chervitz and Kevin Kelly were the leading scorers. The team attributed their success to their overwhelming enthusiasm. To add extra spirit, the Puckettes attended the games. Through the efforts of coordinator, Mrs. Liz Cupples, and practices held after school, the Ladue Hockey Team skated into one of its most successful seasons.

Athletic Clubs Support School

Any student who participates in a varsity sport is eligible to join either the Girl's Athletic Club or the Lettermen's Club. The Lettermen take an active part in building the traditional bonfire for Homecoming. While on the other hand, GAC projects include selling Ram and Eudal buttons and bumperstickers. GAC is also highlighted by the initiation that all members must go through.

Mascots Prove Two Heads Are Better Than One; Cross Country Aides Keep Record-Breaking Times

The mascots supported the sports teams on a general level and added enthusiastic encouragement to help the cheerleaders at football, basketball games and pep assemblies. At away games, Emily Sachar and Laurie Chorlins danced and cheered amidst the nudges and stares of the fans. This year, a new costume was purchased which made it possible for both mascots to perform simultaneously.

The Cross Country Aides devoted themselves to working with only the Cross Country Team, both at home and away meets. To support the team, the girls took and recorded times as well as made refreshments. At home meets, the Cross Country Aides presented awards to the top runners. The girls proved to be invaluable to the runners and sponsor, Coach Phil Brusca. The mascots and Cross Country Aides added spirit and encouragement to the various sports teams.

Students Incorporate Hobbies Into Clubs

Both the Stamp and Coin Club and the Art and Needlework Club allowed students to further work in their respective hobbies. Discussing new ideas and reviewing each others' work, members gained experience — by sharing their crafts with others. Also, helping the less fortunate, the Christmas Stocking Club stuffed stockings with small articles such as pens, soaps, and candies for patients at the Chronic Hospital. The Political Action Club debated and discussed current opinions in the political world.

Grapplerettes Aid Wrestlers; 250-Mile Run Highlights Year

Working the table at meets, the Grapplerettes volunteered their time to the wrestling team. The group kept score, watched the clock, composed weight charts, and kept total statistic records for the wrestlers.

In its second year of existence, the World Record Club confronted new challenges. Among the club's activities were a leap frog marathon, a frisbee marathon, and a monopoly marathon.

The highlight this year was a 250-mile relay, in which the runners got pledges for the Special Olympics.

The group completed the run in 22 hours and nine minutes, and is waiting to see the accomplishment printed in the Guinness Book of World Records.

Radio Club Hams It Up; Ecologists Reveal Concerns

Ladue students are transmitted on a new frequency in the Ham Radio Club. Formed in the beginning of the year, this club concentrates on learning the code and technical aspects needed to obtain a novice license.

The Environmental Society Club, sponsored by Mr. Ed Schmidt, strives to become involved with current ecological issues. Projects for the club included collecting refuse from school trash cans, and a paper collecting drive to "Help Save the Trees."

Artistic Scribes Muster Talents

Once again the literary magazine, Crescendo, was published by a staff of interested students who put together poems, short stories, and artwork contributed by themselves and others. Qualified yearbook, newspaper, and literary magazine students became members of the national organization Quill and Scroll. This year's initiation dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Glick.

Panorama In Panavision

Putting out bigger and better issues this year Panorama was the link between the news and the students. Using color and more design than last year, the newspaper attracted viewers of all kinds. The staff participated in the Globe-Democrat's Old Newsboy Day collecting money for charity. They also took part in the annual Junior Journalism Press Conference Writing contest. Issues of Panorama were entered in the MIPA, SISPA, and NSPA evaluation contests.

The Producers. . . . 1976 Rambler Staff

Changing the look of the yearbook with expanded color sections to present the graphic theme, the staff made the 1976 Rambler a most outstanding Ladue yearbook. Besides the constant pressure and hassle of meeting deadlines, the staff had fun delivering Ghost-O-Grams on Halloween and also traditional Heart-O-Grams on Valentines Day. The Rambler staff and adviser Mr. Jerry Watson spent many hours after school working to publish the yearbook on time. The staff gives special thanks to Mark Cohen who drew the artwork on the back cover.

Four No-Trump; Students Take Off

The members of the Bridge Club learned the strategy of playing the game. The students were advised on how to improve their game by sponsor Mrs. Doris Hueseman. The players studied each hand as well as the methods of how to play the game.

For students who wished to take their feet off the ground, the Aviation Club offered them the opportunity. Members of the club studied aviation patterns and viewed several films. The biggest event of the year was when they went out and were allowed to fly the planes.

Equestrians Ride Together; Black Image Takes On Power

The equestrians road every other week at the Circle-R Ranch. The Horseback-riding Club, sponsored by Mr. Len Patton, also collected manure that members sold to raise money. All club members became experienced and educated in the care of horses.

The Black Image Club's goal was to present the black culture to the students. This year the club sponsored the Winter Boogie as well as the annual Sweetheart Dance. With the help of their sponsors Mrs. Sharon Barnes and Mr. Matt Ferguson, the club raised money for the Dodson children as well as for the bus to send handicapped children to the Special Olympics.

Club 25 Reunites; Bowling Club Rolls On

A new club, Club 25, was established to plan a 25-year reunion. All past graduates and teachers will be invited. Mr. Joe Richardson organized the club members and they began contacting alumni by telephone and letter. Many meetings were held to arrange and plan the reunion which will take place in June, 1977.

Every Tuesday at Crossroads Bowl, the Bowling Club meets to practice and improve their skills. Mr. Robert Bassman and Miss Mary Beth Andrews instructed the members on various techniques and methods, helping interested students become better bowlers.

NHS Serves Students, Teachers

Service to students and teachers stands as the primary function of the National Honor Society. Besides ushering at the 1975 graduation and various PTA meetings, NHS members also scurried through the confusion in room 248 during Change Days. Junior members were initiated at a picnic in the spring, while the seniors became members at a ceremony held in the fall. Sponsor Mr. George Glass and officers Jill Silverstein, Liz Gale, Ruth Kim, and Sylvia Cohn helped organize Faculty Frivolities for Scholarship Fund's "Etc" as well as the tutoring program. NHS members, as in the past, tutored students desiring help throughout the district.

Annual Father/Son Banquet Successful And Entertaining

The Annual Father/Son Banquet, sponsored by the Dad's Club, proved successful. Dr. Tines gave his annual speech. Also included in the agenda was Jay Randolph, broadcaster for KSD radio and TV, who captured the group's attention and included a question/answer session in his talk. He attributed much of his success to a member of the audience, Jack Buck. Mr. Buck gave Mr. Randolph his first job at KSD. The Stage Band, under the direction of Tom Poshak, jazzed up the evening. The entertaining night finished with the distribution of forty door prizes.

1. Peri Carvalo, A.F.S. student, captures the attention of the fathers and sons. 2. Dr. Tines and Dr. McKenna sit back and listen to Jay Randolph speak. 3. Drama Club 'Reacts'

Drama Club and Thespian Troupe 1109, headed by sponsor Miss Donna Taylor, and officers Sally Heller, Sherri Garber, Robin Levy, and Beth Burlison, created a unique atmosphere this year. A large variety of students became involved, especially many enthusiastic sophomores. Generally, the attitude of crews and cast members proved exciting and creative. Members backed performances and projects sponsored by Drama Club. Such projects include working at Loretta Hilton as ushers. Other successes were the Coffee Houses. The first one on Oct. 12, featured the Stage Band and a new music group entitled "Something From Nothing." Students also sang, played piano and guitar, and joined in improvisations. The attendance was great. The second Coffee House took place at the all school carnival in the spring. It, too, was successfully entertained. Many new innovative ideas were carried out.

Diverse Interests Form Various Groups

Consisting of four active members, this year's Karate Club had a slam-bang time learning various moves and sounds.

KLSD — Horton Watkins' radio station — was lucky to again employ seven competent disc jockeys whose favorite albums were piped through the student lounge and frequently accompanied Mr. Wagner on the morning announcements.

The Science Fiction Club explored the outer regions of their imagination through many exciting novels.

Saturday Morning Stars

Not only did Saturday Morning Basketball act as a replacement for The Jetsons and Shazam this year, but it also provided good entertainment and intense exercise. Although not as well organized as in previous years, co-captains Mike Sparks and Hauw Han kept the ball moving. Hopefully, next year's dribblers will join SMB instead of dribbling through the halls and shooting baskets in the trash cans.

The March Of Time

The strength of young America rested upon a foundation of unity. The Revolutionary spirit of "Join or Die" is still reflected today in the interdependence among students, teachers and the classes.

Reruns

For Valentines Day, the Yearbook staff (below) delivered amorous letters of adoration to lucky loved ones. The senior class sponsored Saturday Project (right) not only brought smiles to the campers' faces, but to the students' as well.

In celebration of our bicentennial, the music department held a special salute involving the entire district. Bands, choruses, and orchestras from all grade levels participated in the program, which Cherie Banks narrated.

The Scholarship Fund Carnival, etc., offered booths to please even the most exotic tastes. A homemade bread sale (left) appealed to the most refined palates while the ice cream eating contest (below) caused quite a stir.

The spring musical, "Hello Dolly", proved how handy some students could be when in a tangle.

Dolly Levi, (Robin Levy) along with the cast, sings with glee as her plans unfurl.

Sophomores Succeed In Spite Of Diversity

Sophomores started off this year well, winning second place with their homecoming float. To help relieve their expenses, they sponsored bake and bagel sales, which, when added to their successful carwash, augmented funds. The projects not only brought in money, but helped other students as well: in several instances they provided meals for our debaters and their opponents. The sophomores had plans for another profitable car wash and a spring sock hop.

Juniors Plan Many Projects Despite Lack Of Class Involvement

This year Junior Class President Mark Cohen, along with the other officers, resolved that the main problem was getting students interested and involved. The junior class began the year by sponsoring a t-shirt sale at the orientation for sophomores and new students. Orders were taken for three different styles and sales continued throughout the first few weeks of school. This project was then followed by a junior class car wash. The junior class float came in third place in the homecoming float competition, and to the students involved, a lot of work was undertaken. Other projects sponsored by the class were a bagel sale and a movie night. The juniors brought back the Senior Prom, for the third year in a row to finish off the school year.

1. Junior Class Council — FRONT ROW: Jimmy Halpern, Mark Cohen, Tracy Zerman. SECOND ROW: David Herman, Carol Kottmeir, Matt Holt. THIRD ROW: Lisa Grollman, Alan Bank, Sally Sachar, Sherri Weissman. FOURTH ROW: Lori Winters, Gene Weil, Lynn Kranzberg, Jan Mirowitz. FIFTH ROW: Laure Faust, Lisa Heuer, Lisa Shifrin, Vicki Mendelson. BACK ROW: Sue Blomquist, Patty Herzog, Cathy Klearman, Mary Beth Ponte, Linda Marotta.

2. Junior Class Officers — Treasurer Jimmy Halpern, Secretary Tracy Zerman, Vice president Lisa Fields, President Mark Cohen.

3. A salute to Coach Velten's centennial is the theme of the junior class float.

4. Debbie Newman's always shaky when pictures are taken.

5. JoAnne Slosberg, secretary of Student Congress, pretends to look interested with the agenda.

6. "What are you guys saying about me?" asks Cathy Klearman.

7. "This one, too?" asks Gene Weil.

8. Mark Wasserman, Lisa Shifrin, and Robin Levy are excited for the winner chosen in the publication's drawing.

Seniors Unify Student Body

The Senior Class Council led the student body in many enjoyable and profitable projects this year. The continuation of the Spring '75 book sale proved to be a big success. Profits from this sale funded the Saturday Project in which many seniors participated. For the first time in three years, the senior class, through much leadership and responsibility, produced a winning float. The entire student body enjoyed this year's homecoming dance sponsored by the senior class. This same organization and cooperation made the senior out-to-lunch program run smoothly. Their enthusiasm will be an asset to whatever activities they undertake in the future.

Rams Continue Winning Tradition At Ladue

This year's Varsity football team was probably the greatest in Ladue's history. The Rams were 8-1 in regular season, winning their fourth consecutive Suburban South Conference Championship. Their overall record was 9-2 as they split two playoff games. Overall, the team was ranked number three in the St. Louis area. Honors went to 17 players. Named to all-state teams were Tackle David Efron and Defensive End Dan Buck. Others named to special teams included Dave Mattern, Charlie Abel, Keno Laney, Dave Victor, Mark Velten, Jim Barnes, Greg Fenlon, Dan Adcock, John Whitacre, Neal Furlong, Craig Kessler, Tim O'Leary, Daryl Leake, Mike Sparks and Ken Schweiss.

Not to be forgotten were the men on the special teams who did such a fantastic job all year long. Another big event this season was Coach Ed Velten's 100th career win since he has been at Ladue. Most people will agree that Ladue was quite lucky in finding a key running back when Keno Laney transferred from Ritenour. Three of the biggest games this season were the two playoff games and the battle of the undefeateds at Kirkwood when the Rams played Kirkwood, in the second to last game of the season. The tremendous support the school has given the team over the years reflects the number of students and parents that attend both home and away games, which was the case in those three games. With 41 players returning next year and 11 of them starters, there is no reason for Ladue to be deprived of that long awaited State Title.

Offense: Behind the arm of QB John Whitacre and running backs Keno Laney, Neal Furlong and Greg Fenlon, the Ram Offense showed it's strength by scoring 214 points during regular season. Ladue's success could be sized up in two words: Offensive Line. That line of Charlie Abel, Dan Adcock, Mark Velten, Dave Efron, and Steve Miller provided necessary blocking and QB protection to enable the offense to move. Efron was named to the all-state team for his efforts. Punter Bob Karliner was called on regularly and did a fine job as Mike Greenstein handled the place-kicking as well as kick-offs. Many other players were called on regularly to fill in for injured teammates and did a great job.

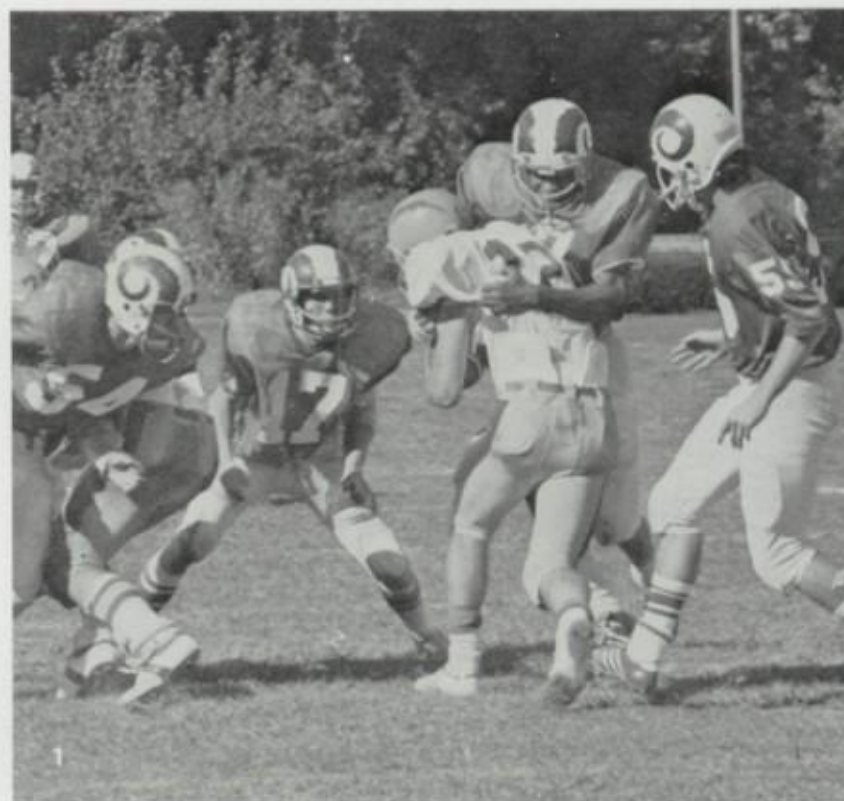

In Ladue's opener, their only Sunday game and only non-conference battle, the Rams butted Aquinas 27-0. Greg Fenlon, Neal Furlong and Steve Clark all scored in this game. Weeks two and three saw the Rams back on Saturday afternoon in home games. A powerful offensive line opened up the stubborn University City defense to lead Ladue to a 21-6 victory. Against Lindbergh, the Rams allowed 12 points, the most they had allowed in two years but prevailed over the Flyers 21-12. At this point Ladue had won 25 of its past 27 conference games. On Oct. 4, the Rams traveled to Oakville and humiliated their hosts 19-0, as Greg Fenlon and Keno Laney each gained over one hundred yards. At Webster Groves, the Statesmen gave Ladue a tough battle right down to the final minutes, as the two offensive teams hooked up in a 33-26 Ram victory. Ladue scored the first three touchdowns with Webster scoring the next. Laney scored Ladue's fourth TD before Webster scored twice more. Ladue had a small 25-20 halftime lead. In the final half, both defenses tightened up, but Webster went ahead 26-25 at the end of the third quarter. Two big penalties hurt Webster as Neal Furlong rambled in from the twelve and as an insurance John Whitacre scored two points on the conversion. The next two games could be classified as pre-season warm-ups as the Rams smashed Parkway North 28-0 and Parkway West 28-3 to make homecoming a complete success.

And then there was Kirkwood, who in recent weeks had become the Rams archrival and were right behind the Rams in the standings. Both teams were as tough as they come — and both were undefeated. Ladue scored first after Whitacre ran 41 yards to set up an 8 yard scramble by Laney. The only thing Kirkwood could manage were two field goal attempts from long yardage. In the fourth quarter all the breaks went to Kirkwood. The Pioneers intercepted a pass and then ran the ball in to tie the game 7-7. An unfortunate fumble gave the Pioneers great field position and then they got the win, 10-7 on a field goal. In the final week of play Ladue smashed Mehlville 30-6.

Defense: Led by Senior Tri-Captain Dave Mattern, the Ladue defense was one of the most awesome in the entire state as they allowed just 6.8 points per game and registered three shutouts. In other games, Ladue allowed under ten points five other times. Not to be overlooked are Senior linesmen Dave Victor, Dan Buck, Scott Britton and Jim Barnes. These four were perhaps one of the biggest reasons Ladue went to the playoffs. Linebacking was led by Mattern along with Juniors Ken Schweiss and Larry Ranger who will be back next year even stronger. The defensive backs were quite solid with Mike Sparks, Daryl Leake, Chris Heck and an alternate. Together the entire defense clearly dominated the conference, but more important led this great team into the playoffs for the second straight year.

1. Ladue shows its exceptional strength on special teams. 2. Defensive Coach Mike Brombolich and Dave Mattern discuss late game strategy. 3. Larry Ranger outraces his Webster Groves opponent after an interception. 4. Keno Laney shoves a stiff arm at his Lindbergh opponent. 5. Quarterback John Whitacre better get that pass off quickly. 6. "I don't care how you do it, just do it!" shouts coach Ed Velten. 7. After a good block, running back Greg Fenlon heads for the goal line.

Rams Advance To Semi-Finals

For Ladue, it was one step further in the playoffs than last year. For the second straight year Ladue was rewarded for its great performance during regular season. In round one, Ladue was pitted against Southwest, one of the top teams in the city. Ladue had a rough time but got good running from Keno Laney and Greg Fenlon and a great performance from the defense to win, 19-10 and to advance to the next round. Coach Velten said it was one of the most physical contests he had ever seen. The next week Ladue ran up against a brick wall called DeSmet. Before over 4000 fans, DeSmet got on the scoreboard first, scoring on its first possession of the game but that was all. Penalties and turnovers hurt Ladue badly. Ladue's only score came when Charlie Abel blocked a punt, and then Greg Fenlon scored. The extra point missed and Ladue came out on the short end of a 7-6 mark.

This year's sophomore football team was actually a lot better than their 2-5-1 mark. Not more than one of their games was out of reach, and all but one of their losses was by a touchdown or less. Some leaders to look for next year are Rob Fenster, Mike Gartenberg, Dave Shalk, David Wyne, Charlie McMullin, Steve Hurster, and Craig Fields; all played a dominant role in this year's sophomore team. Each member of this year's squad gained necessary and valuable experience to compete on the varsity level of high school football.

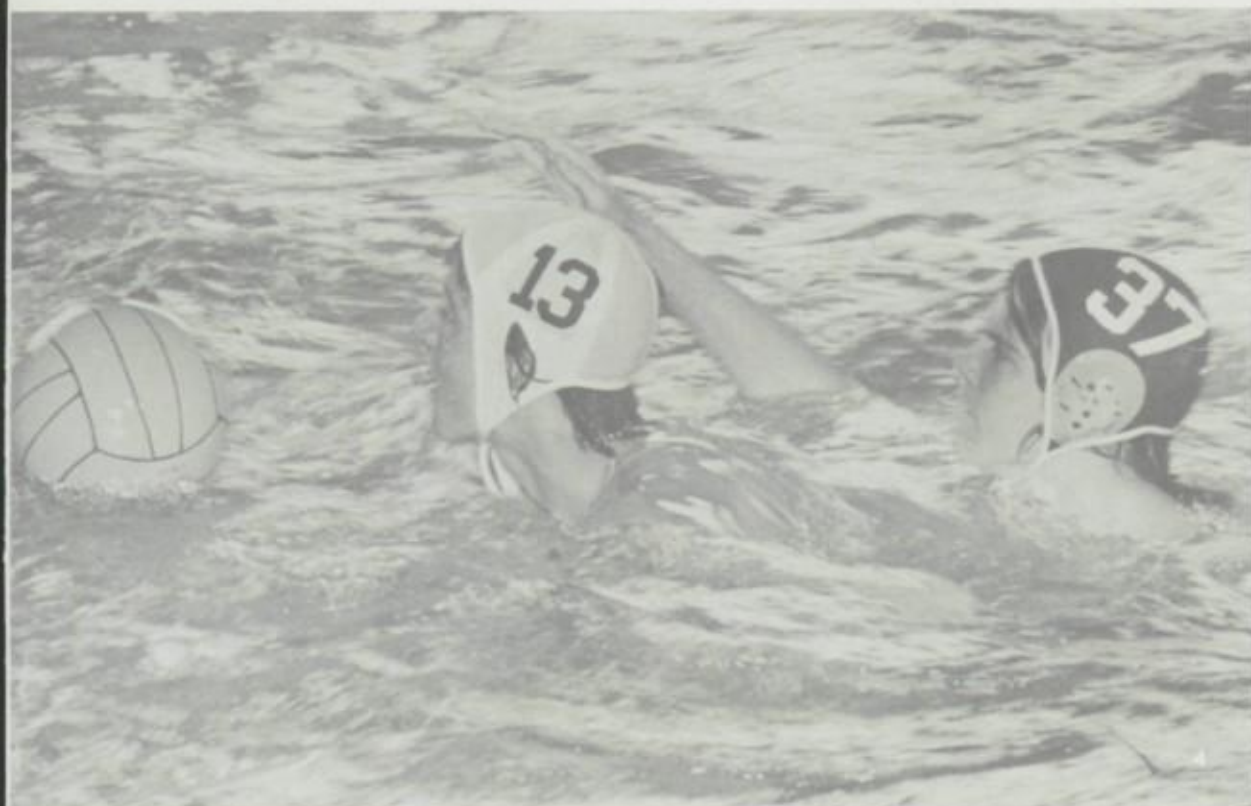

1. With great blocking from the offensive line, Greg Fenlon bursts through the Southwest defense. 2. John Whitacre prepares to pass while getting great protection. 3. Eudals Complete Fantastic Season

The 1975-76 Ladue water polo Eudals jelled into what many people called Ladue's best water polo team ever. Led by Captains Murden, Yates, Vest and Scott King, Ladue showed their presence in the Suburban South by winning the early season Affton tournament and Suburban South Conference tournament. One of the Eudal's strong points was depth. Two stars of last year's team, Jimmy Halliburton and Bill Stabler, joined Kevin King and eight other members of last year's Sophomore team. There was one superior goalie named Greg Murden who played both ends in the pool and kept the Eudals in many games with his fantastic saves. Backup goalies Hebrank and Deitchman filled in admirably for Murden when he was out. After winning their first ten games, the Eudals lost a heartbreaker to Country Day, by one goal, but rebounded to win all of their remaining games. In the playoffs, Ladue had tough competition from Lindbergh and University City but reached the finals. In a crucial and controversial game with Country Day, Ladue lost by one goal, as it was a close call that kept this team from winning their second state championship in three years, but no one will doubt this team of 22-2 was perhaps the greatest team in Ladue water polo history.

1. Coach Craig Canatsey talks it over with Ted Bearman, Jon Kircher and Greg Chapman. 2. Scott King takes a shot as Grady Yates looks on. 3. Baby Eudals Have Good Year

The 1975-76 Sophomore Water Polo team had a fine 12-7 season with Kent Kehr, Steve Gelber and Brock McEwen scoring the bulk of the teams goals. Good effort by all of the players led to the success of the team. Their efforts this year will provide them with the experience vital for next years squad.

Soccer Rams Struggle Through Rough Season

Beginning with the 1975 schedule, the soccer season moved from the arctic St. Louis winter to fall and it may just as well stayed in winter. The Soccer Rams suffered through a dismal 3-13-1 campaign. Led by co-captains Larry Schlang and AFS student Pery Carvalho, the boys soccer team never got rolling as they seemed to play a more defensive minded game. Bright spots in this year's team were sophomore Bruce Geise who led the team in scoring with seven goals, and juniors Mike Rich and Bob Streeter who each had three tallies. Goaltending was handled by Bob Kauffman who kept Ladue from falling behind in many games. With a fine sophomore team and returning juniors, next year's bright spots should bring Ladue an elusive goal: a successful and winning soccer team.

Sophomores Gain Vital Experience

The sophomore soccer team displayed a good 7-6-2 record this season, including an excellent performance in the post season tournaments. Led by Jim Stann, Don Rudolph, Kevin Leahy, and Tim Butler, all of the Sophomores were brought up on varsity in the final tournaments of the season. With the help of the Sophomores, the varsity defeated highly seeded St. Louis area teams. Coached by Ronald Probst, most of these sophomores should be returning next year, giving Ladue one of their best teams next fall.

Harriers Establish New Records

With the lengthening of the course in 1975, the Ladue Cross Country squad, led by Jerry Cronin and Roger Young, set new records. Cronin established a Varsity record time of 13:02 on the new 2.5 mile run. Steve Friedman and David Wilson held Junior Varsity and Sophomore records respectively. In perhaps the toughest conference in the area, Ladue consistently kept times down and provided the necessary experience for next year's squad.

Varsity Regains Suburban Title

Both the Varsity and the Junior Varsity Field Hockey teams completed their seasons victoriously, each sacrificing only 2 goals. Under the leadership of co-captains Sue McClure and Sheri Miller, the Varsity team beat Lindbergh and regained the Suburban South championship title for the third time in four years.

The Junior Varsity, led by captain Mary Leahy, shows great promise for next years team. Top scorer for both teams was sophomore Geri Rosen with 16 goals.

Varsity Tennis Ends Season With 10-4 Record

During the season, the Girls Varsity Tennis Team was confronted with some of the toughest competition ever. The schools had more experience than last season and had improved greatly. Ladue's team had seven returning starters plus three excellent sophomores, Robin Benedict, Sue Johnson, and Liz Steinbaum. They were led by such outstanding players as Sue Bronska, Linda Adreon and Wendy Guthrie. Although the team did not place in the state finals, they did send their top players to compete in Columbia.

Gymnastics Team Places Second In Their League

Although the Gymnastics team had an outstanding season, a single loss to Lindbergh by one point led them to a second place standing in their league. In the league championship competition, Diane Chalmers placed fourth on the balance beam, unevens, and the vault, and second all-around. Lynn Velten placed first on the unevens and vault and third on floor exercise and all-around. Other outstanding team members include Patty Chalmers and Steph Walker. Although the team will lose six seniors, they have many strong sophomores and juniors. With these underclassmen, coach Connie Travagliente is optimistic about next year's squad.

Girls Golf Enters Athletic Scene

The girls varsity athletic department expanded this year to include a Varsity Golf Team. Under the supervision and coaching of Mr. James Sinner and Miss Mary Ann Beall, the team concluded their season with a 2-4 record.

Counselor James Sinner, former boys golf coach at Christain Brothers College aided in teaching basic fundamentals to the girls. His previous experience and knowledge enabled him to give Miss Beall many inside hints.

The team was composed of nine girls whose competitive experienced ranged from very little to advanced. Sophomore Elaine Queathem held number one spot, with the number two position alternating between Ann Fingerhood, Jane Hillwick and Kim Larson.

Varsity Basketball Continues To Improve

With only four returning lettermen, the basketball Rams ended their season with a respectable 13 and 11 mark. Paced by co-captain Gregg Polinsky, the Rams got off to a flying start by winning seven of their first ten games including their second straight Brentwood tournament. After a tough loss to DeSmet, the Rams came back to bomb Brentwood by 43 points. Although losing six of their next eight games, Ladue played well losing by only 4 to an excellent Parkway Central and 5 to a good Parkway North team. Versus University City, Polinsky and Hasan Houston engaged in a shootout, but the Indians won by a mere three. The rest of the season was ups and downs with the Rams winning a few and then losing a few. Polinsky and Lester Knight, who averaged 11.4 points per game, were the team leaders with Juniors Alan Bank, Nick Litzsinger and Scott Smith at the other starting position. Bank was third on the team in scoring and shot an incredible 83 per cent from the free throw line. Smith and Litzsinger were valuable members to the varsity team after doing so well on last year's sophomore team. These two will be counted on heavily next year. Other important team members included Steve Rudolph who was a regular substitute at guard with Neal Furlong and Greg Fenlon helping out at forward. Sophomore Keith Bank did an admirable job to earn him a spot on the Varsity team. The rest of the team saw limited action but they were always ready to play their best and do a good job.

The main reason for Ladue's good showings was pre-season All-America pick Gregg Polinsky who lead the Rams by scoring 27.3 points per game. This whopping average helped him to be selected to the Suburban South conference team. Polinsky scored 38 per cent of the Rams total points. He also led the team in rebounding with a 11.9 average and more important he led the team in assists with over 6 per game. Polinsky was named to the Post-Dispatch player of the week when he scored 34, 50 and 30 points in three games. His 50 points against Webster set a new school record. Gregg also broke the school record for points scored in a high school career.

Sophomores Complete Perfect Season

Under the guidance of Coach Bob Lange, the 1975-76 sophomores ended their season on a perfect note with a record of 24 wins and no losses. The sophomore Suburban South champions reeled off their 24 straight victories in fine fashion, winning three tournaments including the Suburban South tournament. Averaging over 68 points per game, the Rams set a school record scoring 95 points against Brentwood, and a league record of 92 points against Affton. The starting five of Tim McCoy, Bryan Kanefield, Bob Karliner, David Grand and Bill Newman got the Rams off to quick leads and if any of them got in trouble, fine reserves including Frank Sterneck, John Denmon, Irl Grodsky, Mike Levitt and Art Weiss filled in admirably. Other players doing great offensive and defensive work included Tony Buren, Bob Foster, Clark Morrison and Tom Tyus.

Department leaders consisted of points and average leader was David Grand while Bob Karliner led the team in rebounds clearing over 300. Starting guards Kanefield and McCoy each gained over 100 assists. Known for their offensive punch, the sophomores displayed excellent defense allowing a mere 44 points per game. Another figure to note was the fine 66 per cent shot from the free throw line. This team is the first Ladue team of any kind to go undefeated.

In A Row; Fail To Win Games During Mid-Season

Inexperience, Injuries Plague Grapplers

Despite finishing with a 2-9 mark, the 1975-76 wrestling team showed many new talents. Led by Tri-Captains Craig Kessler, Dan Ludwig and Mike Ukman, the Grapplers won their first meet by a large margin, and then placed a respectable sixth out of eight teams as hosts of the Ladue Invitational Tournament. Many sophomores highlighted the season, including Steve Clark who became the first sophomore ever to finish first in the heavyweight division. Other sophomores finishing high included Harlan Silbergeld, Myles Fingerhood, David Ozersky and Byron Johnson. These sophomores, helped by their teammates, placed sixth in the post season conference tournaments. Good junior wrestlers included Craig Reiss, Randy Scharfenberg, Ken Schweiss, Steve Weinstein, Jon Krost, Ted Pliakos, and David Carroll. Of course, Ukman, Ludwig and Kessler were the main sparks of the team, not only exhibiting fine leadership but finishing very high in most of their meets. Coaches Bill Graham and Bob Norris will place heavy responsibility on, a very large underclassmen turn out for next years team with a large percentage of wrestlers out for their third year.

Individuals Highlight Swimming Season

Led by senior Captain Scott King and juniors Jim Halliburton and Bill Stabler, the 1975-76 swimming Eudals finished their season with a 7-6 mark. Highlights of the season included eight new records, including a district and state record in the 200 yard medley relay by Bill Stabler, Jim Halliburton, Scott King and Chip Piper. Scott King broke his won record in the 100 yard breast stroke while Stabler bettered his own mark in the 100 yard back. Records broken by Halliburton included the 200 yard free, 200 yard individual medley, 100 yard fly, 100 yard free and 500 yard free.

Despite such strong individual performances, many of the swimmers had a long period of illness and missed a few meets. Big wins of the season included victories over tough Clayton and University City teams with fine performances by Piper, Ted Bearman, Greg Chapman, David Johnston and Kevin King, all of whom showed considerable improvement. Diving was handled admirably by Mike Karasick and first year divers Dan Huber and Bob Orr. Regular sophomore swimmers included Bill Greene, Brock McEwen, Barry Miller and Al Watkins. With everyone except two seniors returning, next year's swimming team should be even better.

Eight New Records Set

Gymnasts Display Polished Routines

Led by four returning seniors and three strong juniors, the gymnastic Rams finished this season with a good 4 - 3 record. A great deal of pressure was put on the shoulders of Seniors Bruce McElfresh, Brad and Brice Benson and John Heusler. McElfresh and the Bensons shared the heavy responsibilities of being all-around performers while Heusler gave it all he had on the rings. Juniors Drew Kravin, Greg Vahlkamp and Craig Reese turned in excellent performances and will be counted on heavily for next year. First year Coach Bill Graham said a weak spot on the team was his lack of experience but next year's squad should be quite good with the three returning juniors and nine sophomores combining their talents.

A big goal for gymnastics was to get more people to their meets, and this season the entire conference was picking up with spectators. In the post-season conference championships Dan Huber finished third in the vault, Bruce McElfresh fifth on the floor exercise sixth on the high bar and fourth overall and John Heusler placed fourth on the rings. All in all it was a very good year for the boys gymnastics team.

Rookie Rifle Rams Show Great Potential

Under the guidance of Coaches Tony Lejsek and Roman Kuchner, the 1975-76 Ladue Riflery team combined their talents to come up with another fine season. Led by captain Jay Balk, other high scorers included Dave Ferguson, Jack Klohr, Bill Pritzker and Keith Ramsey. A highlight of the season included a second place finish in a league tournament behind top-seeded C.B.C. Although Riflery is not a spectator sport, this team has great skill and many shoot over 25 rounds a day in practice. Another area that the riflery team participates in is growing sport of skeet shooting.

This year's team finished in second place in their conference but with these young prospects and a bit more support from the school, the Ladue Rifle Team could be a more active and more popular school sport.

Girls End Season With Third Place Standing

The Girls Varsity Basketball team, led by co-captains Susan McClure and Tina Wilson, ended their season with a respectable 10-5 record. High scorer for the team was sophomore Julia Kriegshauser with a total of 211 points and an average of 11 points a game. Sue McClure led the team in rebounding averaging 15 rebounds a game. The team voted Sue as their most valuable player.

The Junior Varsity team concluded their season with an 8-7 record. The team has many hopeful players for future varsity teams.

Soccer Team Completes Successful Season

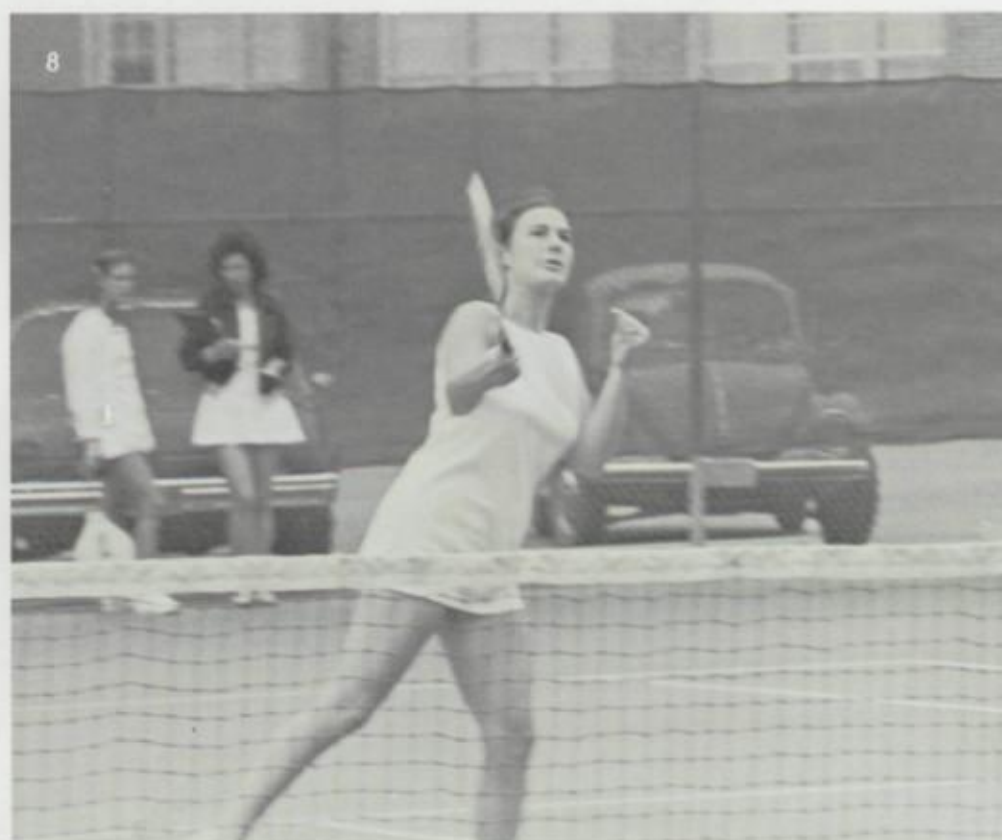

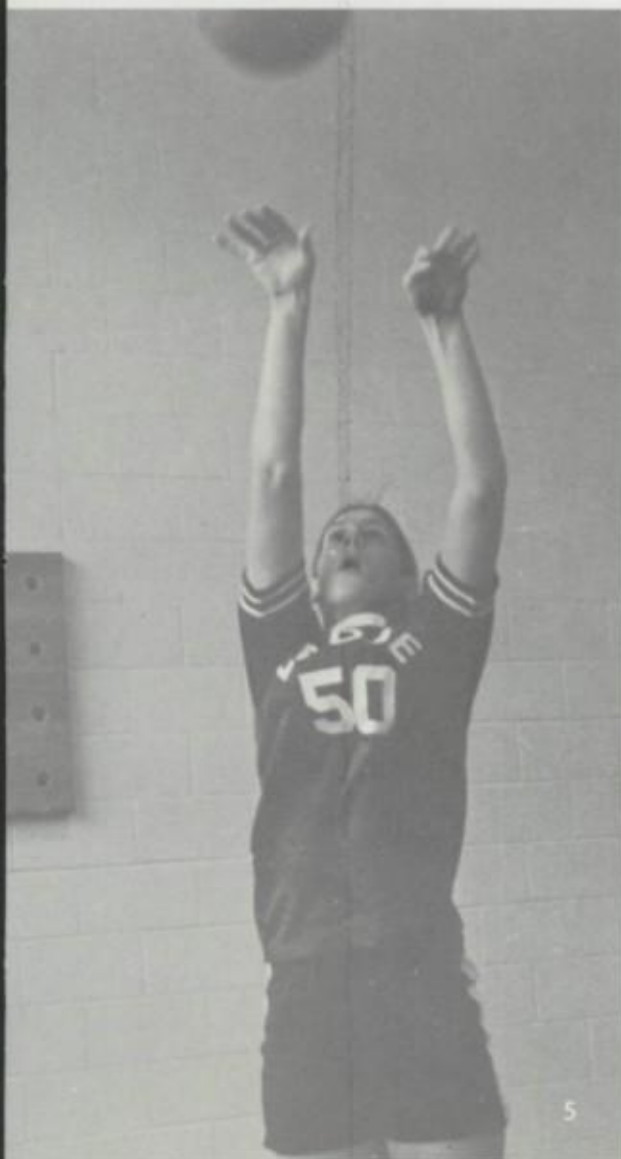

Under the supervision of Coach Richard Burke, the girls Varsity Soccer team successfully concluded their second season. An expansion of the league gave the girls the chance to play more teams than last year. The team ended the season with a respectable 3-2-1 record.

Hopefully the league will expand even more next year and the girls will be able to develop their skills to their fullest.

Much of the depth of the team consisted of sophomores and juniors, and the team looks hopeful for next year.

Principals Encourage Student Success

The individual development of each student is the major goal at Ladue High School. If this is properly done, working together as a team comes naturally and we will achieve success in sports, music, drama, debate, newspaper, and in all activities of the school. Confidence in all we undertake follows from the knowledge that our development for a task is at its highest. Our desire is success of each student who enters this school.

The five guidance counselors provide assistance to all students. The counselors are frequently confronted with problems that are almost always solvable. In some cases, they act as a mediator between teachers and students.

The college placement counselors help students to decide on their post-graduation plans. In addition, the counselors distribute test scores and process college applications.

Counselors Apply Skills To Students' Needs

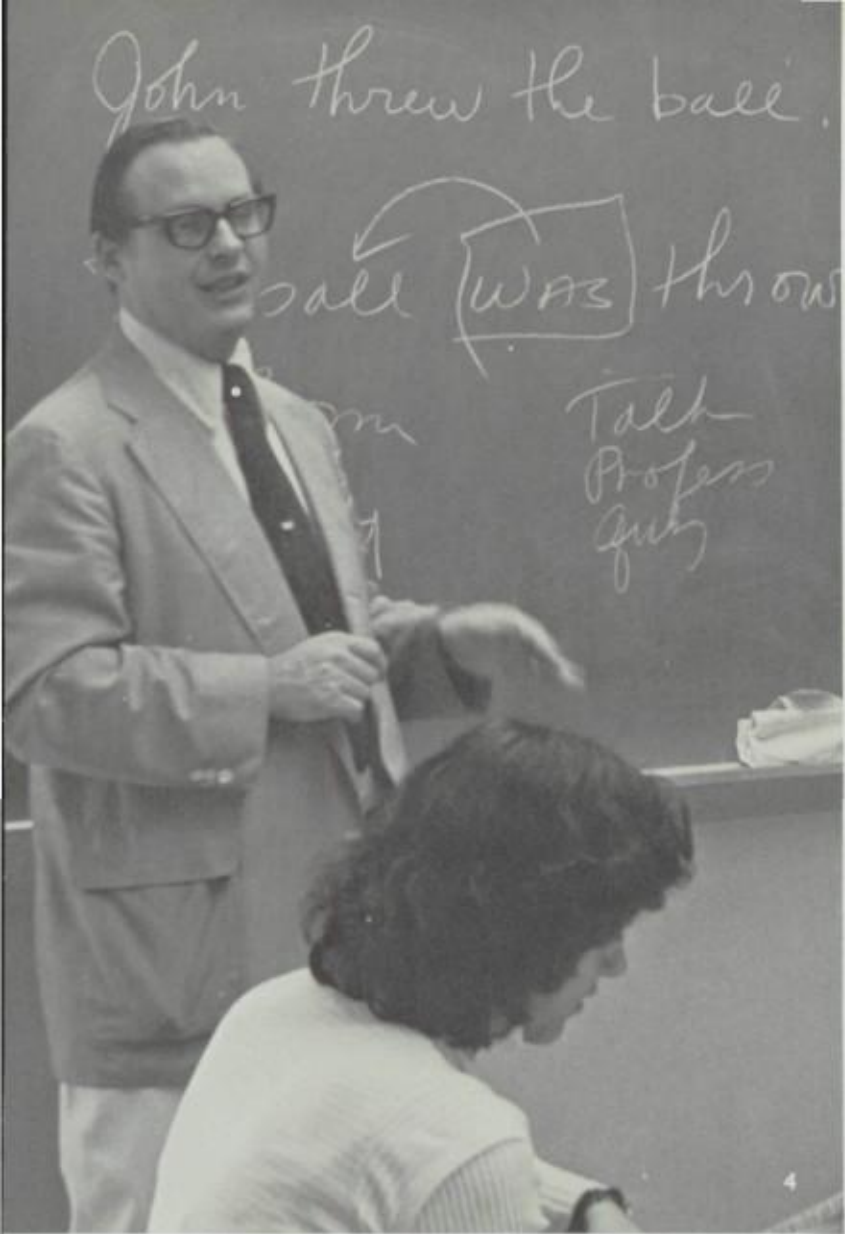

English Department Stresses Communication As A Way Of Life

By using the available courses in the English department, students learn to enrich their communication skills. Discussing opinions with teachers and students in seminar and conferences promotes a better understanding to student-faculty relationships. This year a new course, Women in Literature, was added to the curriculum. Introduced by Mrs. Alice Ault and Miss Mary Beth Andrews, the study of the course concerned the influence of women in literature. One reason for the success of the English department is that all the courses changed and improved for the needs of the student each year.

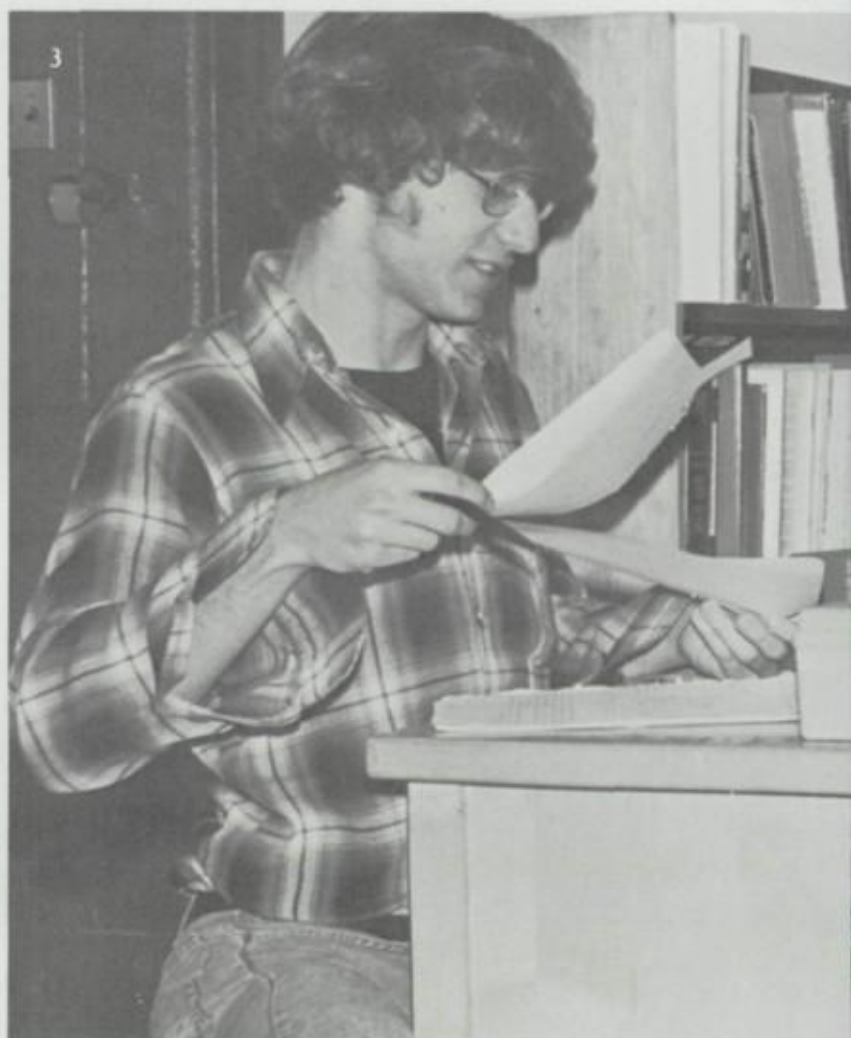

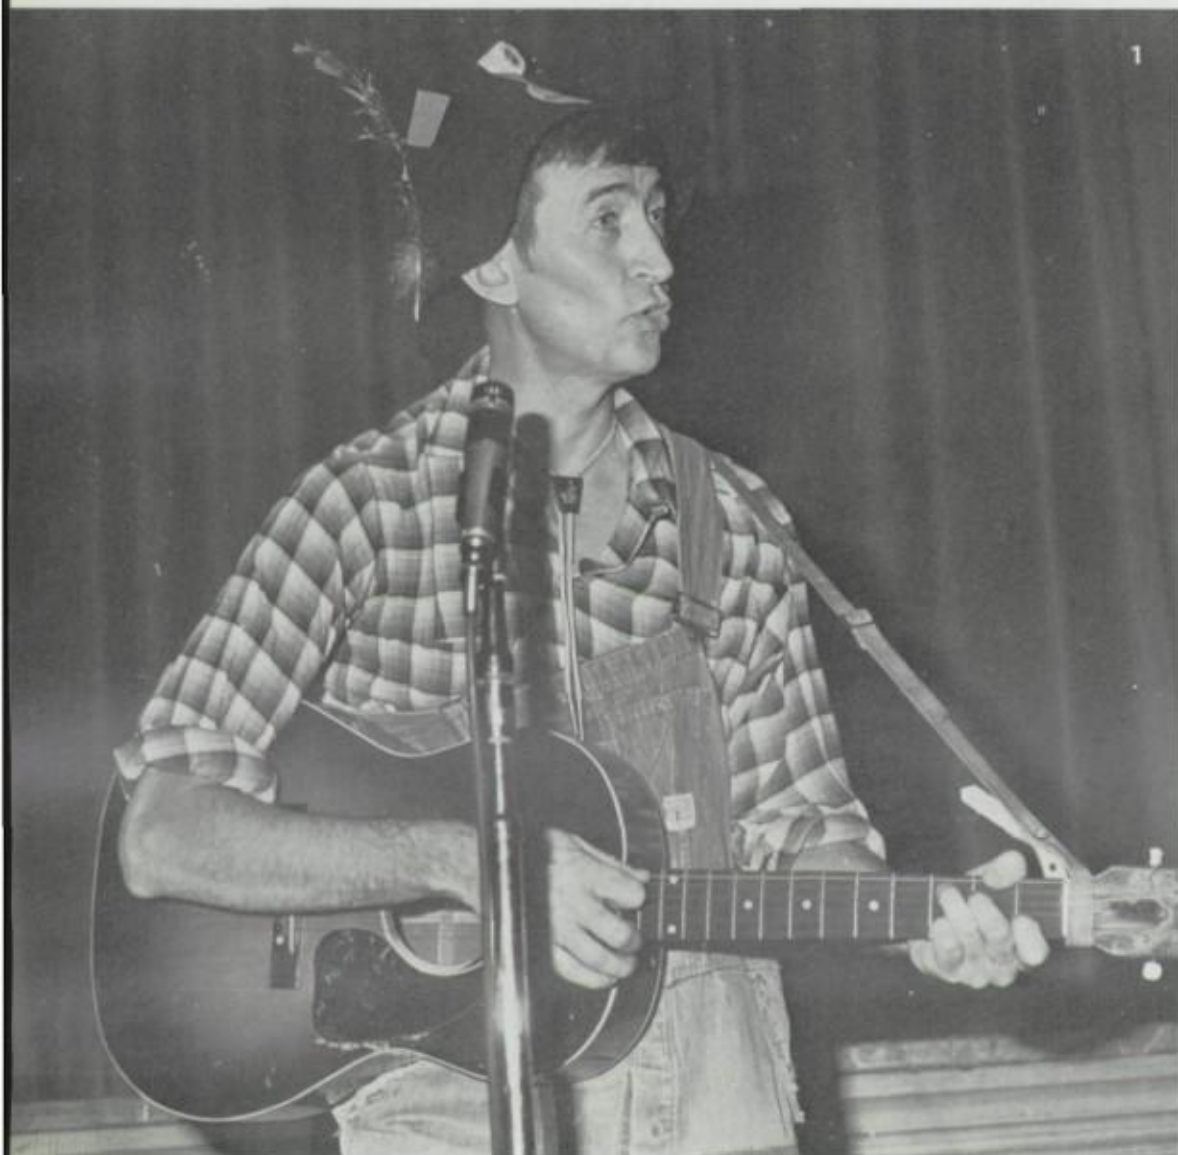

1. Mr. Heger gives a sly smile to a yearbook photographer. 2. Mr. Fugate confers with a student on her essay. 3. Miss Noland and her incredible paper grading. 4. Mr. Heyde is busy at his favorite subject: grammar. Yo! 5. Miss Andrews types out an exam for one of her classes. 6. Mrs. Markman gives a pensive look to Debi Glick. 7. Mr. Doyle just "keeps on reading."

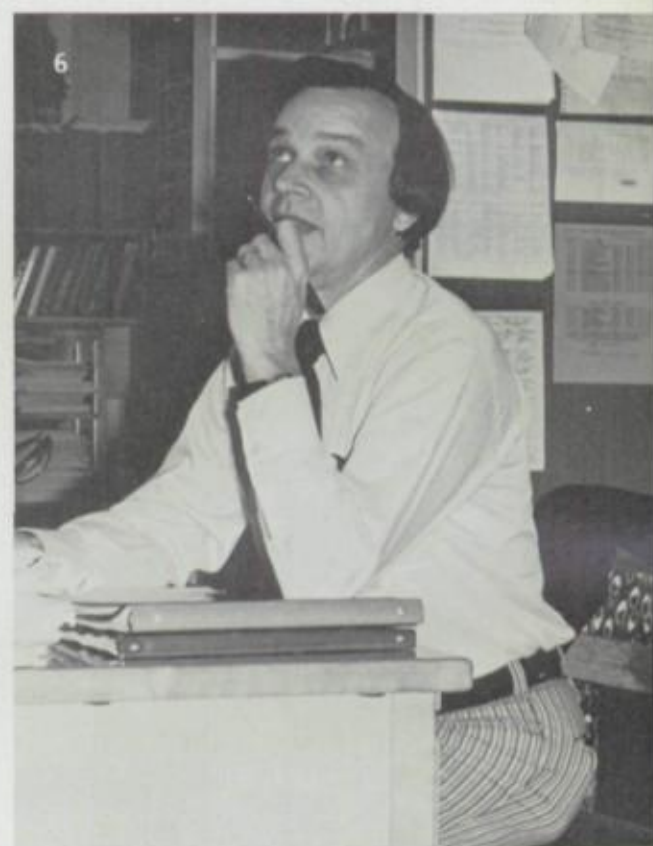

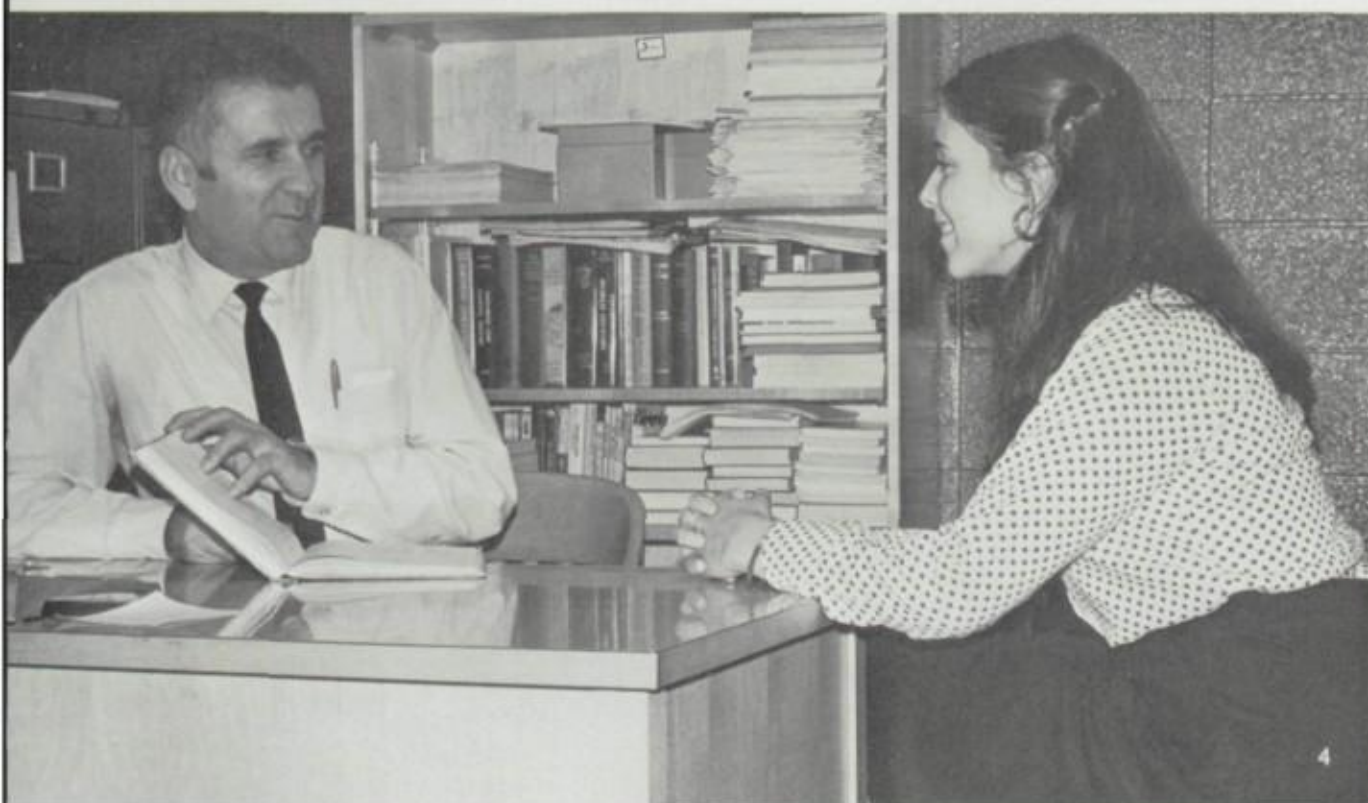

Social Studies Curriculum Broadens Students' Horizons

Each year the Social Studies Department seeks to broaden the variety of social science quarter courses. From a wide variety of options students select quarter courses which appeals to them. Although sophomores and juniors are restricted to the required courses of World History and American History, there are a variety of courses to choose within the standard curriculum. Seniors, however, are able to pick from many courses such as Behavioral Science, Anthropology, Sociology, and Humanities. In addition to the regular curriculum, several teachers from the department sponsor trips abroad during the summer vacation for social studies credit.

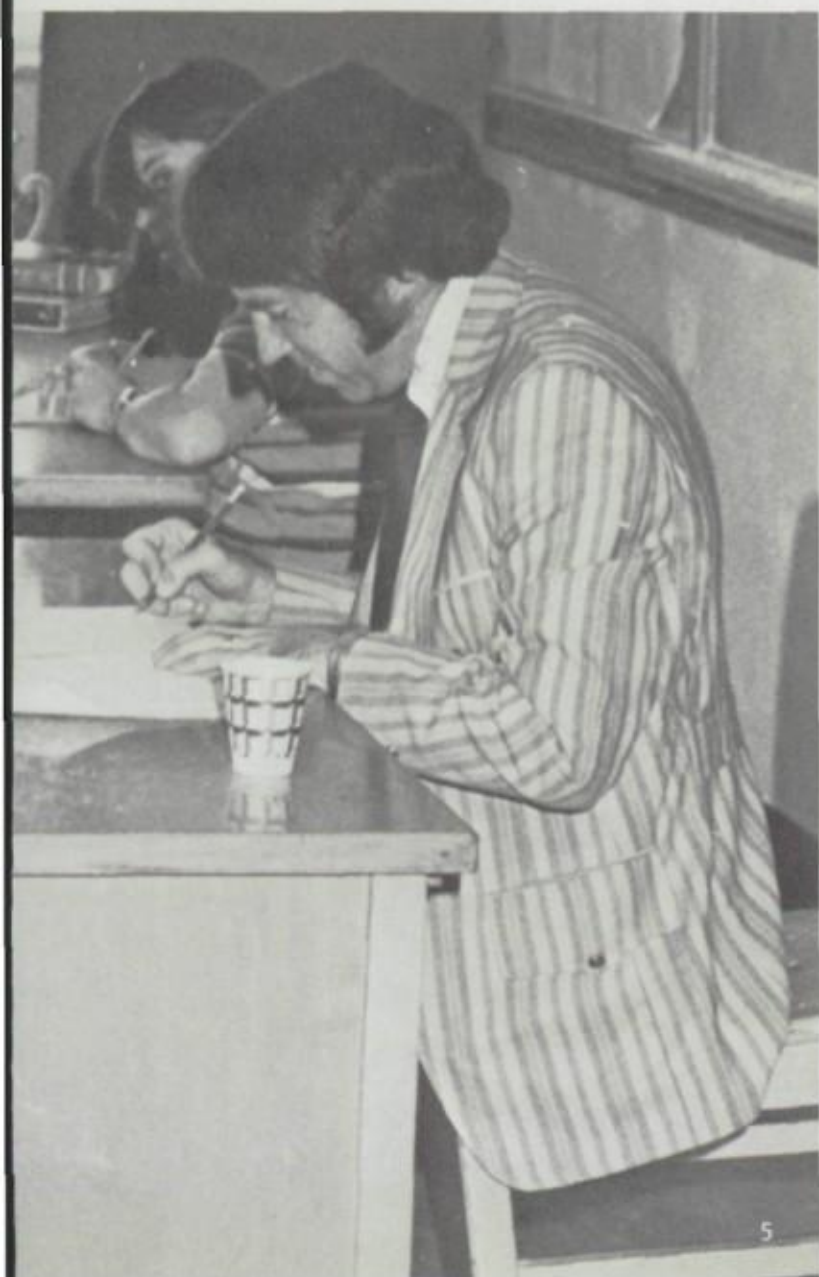

1. Hillbilly Roy Johnson picks a tune in the Grand Ole Opry Style. 2. "Doesn't your dog ever eat anything but social seminars," asks Mrs. Nolting. 3. On his knees, Paul Murphy begs for an extension from Mrs. Edlestein. 4. It's time for a friendly chat between Mr. Krasteff and Sally Heller. 5. Mr. Burke and his two finger touch system. 6. "There is a hard boiled egg on the ceiling," observes Mr. Kieffer. 7. Tom Smith uses the "nice guy approach" on Mr. Ferguson.

Success Of Math Program Based On Many Courses

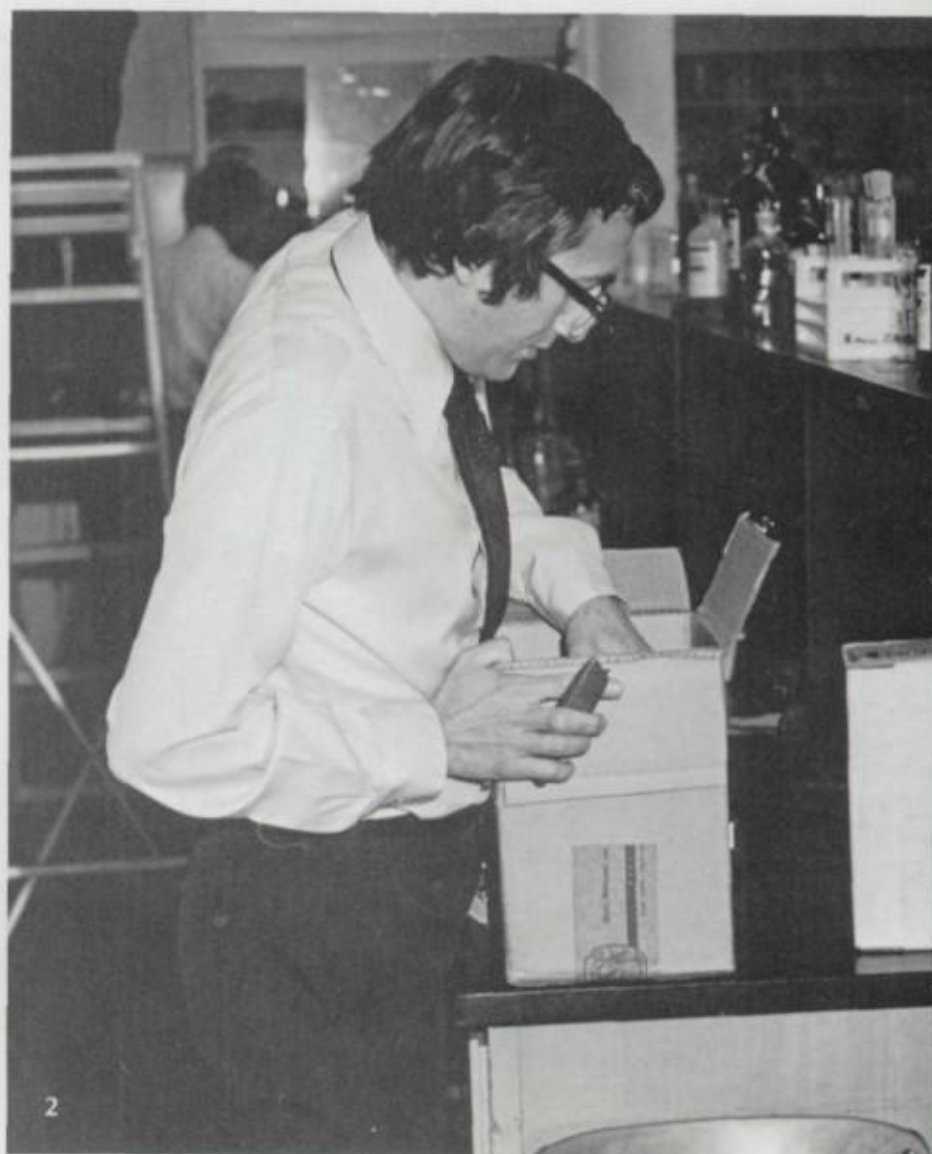

Due to the fact that all students do not have the same mathematical ability or needs, the Math department offers many different courses. For those people who want to follow the basic high school math pattern, classes are offered in Algebra, Geometry, Trigonometry and Analysis in both regular and innovated forms. For the more motivated senior, Calculus, an Advanced Placement course was also offered. Courses that were more specialized in their application, such as Computer Programming and Math for S.A.T. were also offered. Because of the fine math faculty, these programs were successfully administered.

1. Group Therapy — Mr. Stephenson works out a problem for this group of people: Scott Karfeld, Jeffery Stockton, Dan Rosenberg, Barbara Lander, Margaret Jones and Lauren Schneider. 2. Mrs. Hueseman helps Jeffery Fox and Michael Korkoian as Robert Goldman and Karen Sokolik work by themselves. 3. Even Mr. Pride can not figure out what he has done. 4. Mr. Rhoads answers a question in a large group. 5. Stacie Grosberg tries to take a look as Mr. Herbert grades her test. 6. "I really DO want to look at your homework," says Mrs. O'Keefe to James Barnes. 7. "What is this?" asks Mr. Bruns of Susan Zafft.

Science Classes Explore The World Around Us

The Science classes are designed to explore the world around us, and at the same time, attempts to explain what is being explored. The explanations are both theoretical and practical in their application. Lab work is used extensively to supplement readings and lectures.

1. "My, what beautiful legs you have!" exclaims Joe Haspiel. 2. Mr. Kardis is opening up another box of his surprises. 3. Coached by Henry the Hacker (alias Mr. Becker), Missy Georges aims her squirt bottle in an attempt to ring up two more points. 4. Foreign Language: The Key To Communication

The Foreign Language department, chaired by Mrs. Suzanne Kirchhoefer, enables students to learn about the history and culture of foreign language. The languages taught are French, Spanish, Russian, Latin, Hebrew and German. The relatively new conversational programs, which focus on the common dialogue of the language, have also been successful. From the first year of learning vocabulary to the last year of reading and conversing with each other, the student has the chance to communicate in all aspects of any foreign language.

Industrial Arts Department Prepares Students For A Future

The Industrial Arts department teaches students courses in drafting, wood-working, metal working and other subjects. Because of a large number of students taking classes, the program caters to the individual needs of the students. They are beginning to have advanced classes that are for quarter and semester credits. The wide range of classes enables students to understand skills that can prepare for a job in the future.

Involvement For All In Home Economics

With so many different course offerings, the Home Economics department has graduated from basic steps of sewing and cooking. A student may learn how to knit, macrame, or stitch to create numerous designs. The bachelor cooking class has always been filled to capacity, and not with just boys. Presented with many different course demands, the department has achieved a range of classes appealing and beneficial to everyone.

Spirit rings out among the groups of the music department. The students enjoy singing, playing an instrument, having fun and creating a sound that is sweet and strong. Mr. Joe Richardson directs the three choruses — Acapella, Choraliers, and Chorale. Mr. Tom Poshak and Mr. William Brackman direct the marching, symphonic and stage bands. This year, as always, the combination of the vocal and instrumental talents has made the music department appreciated by everyone.

The Drama Department offered students many courses pertaining to the theater. In Acting I, various exercises were used to demonstrate the relationships between the individual and the theater. As an introduction to basic acting, the course involved problem-solving exercises. Acting II and III further extend acting skills by primarily concentrating on performing scenes. Two other courses that were offered, Directing and Make-up concentrated in their respective areas of the theater.

1. "You should have told me that you wanted the wall to be black," complains Linda Schneider. 2. Miss Taylor and her acting class

Business Sets Guides For Future

Business Education offered a variety of courses which prepare students for future business ventures. Each course emphasized practical skills in a specific area such as marketing, advertising, business law, consumer business education, and bookkeeping. Skills learned in courses such as typing and note-hand are useful for a variety of purposes.

1. Mrs. Brooks shows that she can read as fast as she can type. 2. Mrs. Ray and her students race to see who will finish the story

Variety Sparks Interest In Physical Ed

The variety of courses offered by the Physical Education department are numerous. Because of the physical education instructors' effective use of the school's facilities, a variety of courses were offered ranging from archery to water games. Because of the variety of the courses offered, most of the students enjoyed their physical education.

1. "You have got to find some way to keep that kid from skipping my class," says Coach Collier to Mr. Sinner. 2. Mrs. Heuduck is lecturing to her class. 3. Personal And Public Health Emphasized

The sophomore Health courses prepare students to effectively react in emergency situations. Emphasizing first aid methods through in-class practice, students learn proper application of safety skills. The junior Health courses stress community health problems as well as reviewing basic first aid skills. Topics range from personal safety to the effects of mental disorder on society.

Range In Media Skills Support Publications

Publications department instructs students in all journalistic and photographic skills necessary for any kind of published media. In Journalism I classes, students gained experience by writing articles and editing the junior high newspapers. Applying their written and graphic skills, the students of the Journalism II classes published the school newspaper, yearbook, and student telephone directory: Panorama, Rambler, and Rambell, respectively. From camera mechanics to creative photography, the students of the Photography classes experienced the gamut of photographic skills.

C.O.E. — A Different Concept Of Learning

Students in the Cooperative Occupational Education program spent their mornings at school and worked at a part time job for the remainder of the day. This class structure gave the students a sense of discipline and responsibility involved with the possession of a large amount of freedom. Students also learned concepts of the business world that trained them for future employment.

1. Mr. House — "The Thinker" at work. 2. "Do I need this?" questions Tom Gall. 3. "My tools for teaching are like a hairdresser's comb and scissors," chuckles Mr. Brums. 4.

What's that you're reading? Mrs. Hughes. 5. You will never know when you will be on candid camera, Mrs. Pounds! 6. "Oh, wow!" exclaims Brad Aul.

Library Atmosphere

Attracts Students, Faculty

The Ivan C. Nicholas Library has a large assortment of reading, audio-visual and reference materials that catered to the needs of all students and faculty. Easy access to all books and periodicals coupled with ample work space created a comfortable and encouraging work atmosphere in the library. The upper balcony of the library also served as classrooms for the intense reading courses of RISS and LEEP.

The ability of the school to run efficiently, hinges on the performance of the secretaries and aids. Besides assisting administrators, teachers and students, the secretaries and aids are constantly busy with tasks ranging from typing and filing to printing. Without these people, the efficiency of the school would drop considerably.

This year in accordance with the theme of the book, the Academics Editors asked each faculty member to submit his favorite movie.

The cooks, custodians and nurses played an essential role in Ladue maintenance during the year. Rising early, the cafeteria staff prepared lunches for the entire district. Custodians, too, began and ended their long day in an empty school, performing their necessary and useful duties. Students continually gave the nurses Excedrin headache number 563, the "I don't feel well" headache. The nurses faithfully responded, even when hearing the same line day after day.

1. Mrs. Cavanaugh looks through her files for a student's health record. 2. Lenora Meisch and Faye Barnum wrap sandwiches for the day's lunch. 3. The daytime custodial staff: Russell Horrell, Lucious Miller, Roy Hinchey, Violet Masgio. 4. Cafeteria staff — FRONT

Audry Moloy, Faye Barnum. 5. The nurses have much record keeping in their jobs, as is shown by Mrs. Cavanaugh and Mrs. Vasholz. 6. Mr. James and Mr. Morrell repair the cafeteria's drinking fountain.
